IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Lila C. Sutherland of the Easley Pilgrim Church passed away February, 1965. Sister Sutherland was a faithful Pilgrim who took seriously her Christian obligation. She was faithful in her attendance at God's house and it must have been a joyful sound for her when she heard the words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter now in the joy of the Lord."

Brother Elijah Courtney, of the Winnsboro Pilgrim Church passed away the last of January, 1965. Brother Courtney lived a consistent Christian life. He was saved one year to the month. In his short Christian life he was very faithful to the church and his Master. His presence on the front seat of our church is vacant. But, I am sure there is joy in heaven because of his entrance.

Mrs. D. L. Wilson

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Given to the Atlantic Southeast District Conference

July 17, 1965

A WORD OF GREETING:

As christians we are gathered together in the name "That is above every name". This immediately makes our meeting together worthwhile, even though our primary concerns and interests are those of administration, it is always right that christian leaders sanctify their deliberations by the firm conviction that "We are labourers together with God".

This is an age that demands leadership with courage. No battle was ever won by people who merely wept because of tragedy. However, the victory belongs to those who are willing to take up the battle standard and fight in the forefront. This is the type of spirit that God chooses to bless and will make most useful.

The fine leadership that is continually being manifested by the pastors of this district is revealed in the steady growth of our churches numerically and spiritually. Especially, has this leadership revealed itself in the attitude toward the many problems that faces small churches today. Many times these problems can only be met by deliberately seeming to take one step backward in order to take two steps forward.

It is essential that every church undertake frequent check-ups in order to remain healthy. In order to maintain a healthy church we must have a willingness to recognize symptoms of weakness before the church develops a spiritual "hardening of the arteries". It requires facing up to realities and many times a sustained corrective action.

Waiting things out or holding doggedly to the old order of things will not strengthen our churches for the future.

We can determine whether our churches have--or is headed for--unhealthy rigidity and we can prepare the way for treatment by asking ourselves four questions:

1. What are the symptoms?
2. Where does the ailment originate?
3. How bad is it?
4. How can we get back our churches' good health?

Many times when there is a tendency in our church to choke off new ideas, and seek the status quo, or perhaps some past experience of glory, it could be a symptom of a more serious malady.

We find many times that the aging process has set in because of certain individuals-- a rigid bureaucrat, a lone wolf operator, a dictator in his own world with policies which are not necessarily in keeping with the over-all policies of the Kingdom, or it may be the individual who maintains that it is too late in life to undertake anything new or different. It may be the man whose mind is clouded with prejudices or biases. Many times this person passes as a strong disciplinarian. This person is the obstructionist who damages the church by choking off ideas, plans, and decisions and by blocking the use of the talents and abilities of others. As pastor leaders we need to prayfully counsel and guide our people around these pitfalls.

To achieve any goal requires paying some price. So, it would be unrealistic to design a plan which required a price higher than the pastor or people is willing to pay. It is, also, essential that the pastor understand his plan and be prepared to do what he must do to make the plan a success. If he does not carry out his part resistance and inertia down the line will increase. In such cases it would definitely have been better never to have undertaken the plan at all.

Whenever a church is on dead center everyone looks for someone on whom to lay the blame. If we are not moving forward as we ought there is a tendency to blame Indianapolis, the wickedness of the times, the lack of spiritual discernment, and the carelessness of people. All of these together can not hold up for one instant the spiritually motivated church who is in the center of the will of God.

It is in this frame of mind that I want to say that the past four years have certainly been blessed ones. Our problems have been healthy ones and our fellowship has certainly been of the highest. The pastors have been most busy - working full time to support their families, pastoring, and preparing messages and finding time to attend promotional meetings and revivals. I never cease to be amazed at how much can be accomplished by dedicated men under the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit. We all know that this is not the best way to build the Kingdom. However, for us, it is either this way or not go at all. Again, I say thank God for dedicated pastors, and for dedicated pastors' wives and families who are only too willing to do anything in order that the Kingdom might go forward.

My report, of necessity, will be brief. In fact, it is only half a report. I certainly would not presume to lay down a program for my successor. Brother Walker will have his own plans to present and his own talents to present these plans with. Our church is certainly fortunate in having men of this caliber, able and willing, to step in when the call presents itself.

I am happy to say in conclusion that our district obligations to the general church have been met in full. I pray that the year ahead, God helping us, shall be the greatest in the history of the Atlantic Southeast District. Amen.

District Superintendent's personal report.

During the past year I have preached 109 times. I have conducted six annual meetings. I have attended the board meetings at Southern Pilgrim College. I have attended the Church Leaders Conference in Indianapolis. I attended a Church Leaders Conference in Florida. I met with the pastors on several occasions and have done my best to help with the problems of the churches as they presented themselves. I supervised the construction of the parsonage at Winnsboro. We have enjoyed the fellowship of the pastors and laymen of this district. And, we have especially appreciated the ministry of Brother Hawkins at our ministerial. We are, again, grateful that we were able as a district to pay our U.S.F. in full.

I have left the Progress Reports for the pastors. I have traveled 36,000 miles in the interest of God's work. My salary has been paid in full.

Respectfully submitted,

T. M. Weir

STANDING RULES

1. Be it resolved that the Conference year shall end May 31 and that all reports and funds shall be in the hands of the district statistician and district treasurer by June 15.
