DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

To the 38th Annual Conference of the Idaho-Washington District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church:

Greetings in the Name of Jesus:

Another year has passed into the hands of the keeper of the divine records, and we are gathered now to examine our earthly version of personal and district labors.

DISTRICT LABORS

Much sacrifice and earnest endeavor has characterized the labors of the ministers and their families. Laboring under the handicap of economic pressure, the subtle attacks of Satan, the scorn of a Christ-hating world, you have pressed your way through every foe to some real victories.

We have had some fine revivals, God honored conventions and Zone Rallies this year. Material progress has been made in almost every church.

HOME MISSIONARY

The men of the district responded nobly to the call for labor in our home missionary church at Yakima, working untiringly until it had been remodeled completely and converted to a lovely house of worship. Rev. Moore, the pastor, and his good people have added to the beauty and usefulness of the building in recent weeks.

The Council has saved the majority of the home missionary money over a period of three years to launch this project and God has responded with a fine constituency which is or will be ready to organize soon. We have five members with more to follow. We believe there is a wonderful future for the Yakima church.

Other activities have been limited by a shortage of men, although other doors are opening to us.

STATISTICAL AND FINANCIAL

These reports speak for the faithful labors of the pastors and wives.

- 8.3% gain in church membership.
- 5.6% gain in church receipts.
- 31 % gain in pastor's support.
- 37.1% gain in Sunday school receipts.

PERSONAL LABORS

Sermons, 113; Seekers, 111; Board meetings, 20; Calls to churches, 51; Annual meetings, 12; Baptized, 9; Revivals on the district, 1; Week-end meetings on the district, 7; Weekend meetings off the district, 1; Revivals off the district, 4; Superintendents meetings, 1; Ministerial meetings, 1; Youth conventions, 1; Zone meetings, 3; Traveled approximately 30,500 miles, the district paying for 13,768 miles.

As we conclude four years of labor among you and move on to other fields, we pray that God will bless and lead you far beyond anything known thus far.

2 Cor. 13:11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Always your brother,

M. C. Kittle
