In Memoriam
WILLIAM J. WEBSTER

William J. Webster, son of George W. and Prudence
Jane Webster, was born August 22, 1878 near Westport, Indiana. He departed this life December 29, 1954 at Caldwell, Idaho, at the age of 76. From 1900
through 1946 he served pastorates in Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Oklahoma and Idaho, as well as serving in the capacity of home missionary, district superintendent of the Kansas District, Idaho-Washington District and a member of the General Church Board. Many churches owe their beginnings to the evangelistic efforts of this man of God.

On May 10, 1916 he was united in marriage to Opal Pulley of El Dorado, Kansas. With his wife ever helping at his side and his two daughters, Nadine Webster and Wilma Webster Bartlow, he was a fearless and able preacher. Living and working with the people, he was an example of what God can do with an ordinary man engaged in extraordinary tasks. He counted over one hundred people who were saved through his ministry, who have gone into the Lord's work in active services, so his work will go on. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord... and their works do follow them." Rev. 14:13

The Idaho-Washington District shares with his widow Opal J. Webster and daughter, Nadine both of Caldwell, Idaho and his daughter, Mrs. Wilma Bartlow, of Pomeroy, Washington the loss of this man of God.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

To the forty-second annual conference of the Idaho-Washington district of the Pilgrim Holiness Church:
Greetings in His love and mercy. "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with Him." Psalms 126:6

One more time we have gathered from our fields of labour to meet for reporting, for consultation, for inspiration and for better planning and organization for the coming year. God grant that we may have the mind of the Spirit in all that we plan. How imperative that with true humility and meekness we seek Divine guidance and help in this Conference.

We are grateful for the cooperation of all our people during the past year. There have been battles, problems, toils, tears, heartaches and night watchings. These we have expected. But thank God, there have also been smiles, encouragements, prayers and victories. These we also expected. We thank God for the work that has been accomplished on the Idaho-Washington district by our fellow preachers and loyal laymen.

The district has experienced several outstanding revivals the past year. This is the most important record that we can report. Several churches have had a good gain in finances and membership. This we must have if we are to go forward as a district. The interest and attendance in our Youth and Sunday school departments have been good. The secretaries will make detailed reports on these.

The Youth Convention and the Ministerial Convention were well attended and were a great blessing to all. Rev. Russell Wooten and Rev. Wm. S. Deal did us much good.

Several churches have added to their present property. Twin Falls has put in a lovely lawn and made other improvements. McCall has put a basement under their church and added a lovely front. Clarkston has decorated the inside of the church. Weippe is in the progress of digging their own well and making the parsonage modern. Coeur d'Alene, which had framed the pastors study last year, has completed it this year and the church has furnished it. This is a fine addition. They have also purchased a fine
Sunday School bus. Spirit Lake is putting a basement under their church with a new stoker furnace. Post Falls has installed a modern oil furnace for their church. Spokane has purchased a lovely church and parsonage in a new location. This is valued at least $50,000.00. Yakima has installed a fine oil furnace in their modern parsonage. Grandview has begun work on a basement under their church. Benton City has decorated the church and parsonage. They have installed new seats and improved the outside of the property. Hermiston has done a lot of finishing work on the new church. They have built two entrances to the parsonage. They have also installed a modern automatic stoker furnace in the church. A new church and parsonage has been purchased at Walla Walla, Washington. The district property now is well over a hundred thousand dollars increase over a year ago in value.

District home missions have come in for their share of interest and attention again this year. This has also necessitated the spending of your money. We have attempted to do this as unto the Lord. We have conducted two home missionary meetings this year; one at Ontario, Oregon and one at Walla Walla, Washington. We have just organized a new Pilgrim Holiness Church at Walla Walla with 12 members. We are fortunate to have Rev. Frank Evans and family come to us as the pastors of this new work. The church and parsonage at Walla Walla, is valued at over $50,000 by the insurance company. God has wonderfully led us in this undertaking. The membership record shows a net gain of 17 not counting our new work at Walla Walla.

The District headquarters have received a face lifting this year. The cabins, the washhouse and boys dorm have all been painted and facings put on the doors and windows. The west portion of the roof of the tabernacle has received a new covering. One of the most important improvements has been the installing of two new light poles and new wiring for the dining room, the cabins and the grounds and tabernacle. The missionary societies have purchased a large gas hot water heater. All in all, we are working toward making our district camp and headquarters adequate and attractive for our people and friends.

Some of our workers are going elsewhere this year. We are sorry to lose good workers but we bid them God speed to their new fields of labor. Rev. and Mrs. Paul Washburn are returning to Pennsylvania due to the illness of her father. Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Snook are moving to El Monte, California where he is to teach in our college.

We are glad to welcome several new workers to our district. Rev. and Mrs. Frank Evans and family from Wilmont, South Dakota; Rev. and Mrs. Robert F. Finch and family from the Pennsylvania-New Jersey District; Rev. and Mrs. O. A. West from the California District; and Rev. and Mrs. Cyrus R. Lynch from the Kentucky District. We want these fine Pilgrims to feel at home in the Idaho-Washington District.

We submit our personal report:

We have preached 179 times, held three weekend meetings, held seven revivals, conducted 29 church board meetings, held 13 annual business meetings, conducted 9 district council meetings, assisted in the dedication of one church and one parsonage, had 7 communion services, attended one church leaders conference, one youth convention and one ministerial convention and one school board meeting. We also worked several days on the camp ground. Of no little effort was moving our household effects twice this year in the interest of home missions. We traveled 16,233 miles in the interest of the work. We have received our salary paid in full and all traveling expenses reported.

We pray God's blessings upon the officers, pastors, and laymen and all the district this coming year. Let us unite our forces for an all out forward movement for God and the Pilgrim Holiness Church.

Respectfully submitted,

I. G. Canary

AUDITING COMMITTEE REPORT

We, the Auditing Committee, have examined the Treasurer's Books and have accepted them.

Ruth Hogarth
Luella Acheson
TO THE FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE IDAHO-WASHINGTON DISTRICT, PILGRIM
HOLINESS CHURCH, Greetings:

It is good to report a marked upswing in missionary zeal and vision among the Idaho-Washington Pilgrims. Every church on our district has an organized missionary society, and is functioning to carry out a three-fold program: foreign, district home missions, and local work among the poor. Many of the societies have far surpassed their average quota, and no phase of the work has been neglected. It is believed that more finance has been forwarded to the foreign missionary headquarters, and more boxes have been packed than ever before. Approximately 95 boxes have been shipped to the field. Greater interest is being shown in developing the work of the Junior Missionary Society among our youth.

Special appreciation is to be expressed in behalf of the missionary prayer meetings conducted once each month at the mid-week prayer service in most of our churches. Knowledge of the work and need of the missionary is extended, and the effects of Spirit filled prayer are truly immeasurable.

A new hot water tank has been installed on the camp ground as a result of the combined efforts of the missionary societies. We were unable to reach the goal of full payment for this appliance, but it is believed the debt may be cleared by next Conference time.

I have conducted 11 missionary services, have provided program material and study course books to a number of the groups, and assisted in every way possible to promote missions on this district. It has been said, "When we cease to be a mission-minded people we become a mission field." It is our sincere desire that we may go onward and forward as workers to-together with Him.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PRESIDENT
WESTERN PILGRIM COLLEGE

To the members of the forty-second Annual Conference of the Idaho-Washington District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church assembled at Clarkston, Washington July 11, 1956: Greetings! I deem it a privilege to report to you on your college and its affiliate organization, Western Pilgrim Schools.

Our educational interests are among the most important problems facing our church today, because the character and quality of our church college will be reflected in the ministry of our leaders in the immediate future. As a church, we have no surplus of leadership material and unless we give attention to preparing for this need, we shall be embarrassed in the tomorrows.

We have been fortunate in having a consecrated, Godly, and well prepared faculty in our school this past year. Most of our teachers, if they so desired, could double or triple their salaries by turning to secular education, but they have put the Christian education of our youth far above the matter of their personal monetary remuneration.

Our new administration building and campus improvements have proven to be a great asset. Our enrollment and financial situation is not encouraging. To come near to paying current expenses, our school must maintain a maximum enrollment; this we do not have at the present time. During the past year we have had the best faculty and equipment the school has ever had, but there has been little increase in the enrollment over the last five years. Can it be that our high degree of national material prosperity prevents our young people from feeling the urge to prepare themselves for Christian service?

I would like to challenge our District officers, pastors, parents, and other leaders to encourage our young people to enroll in Western Pilgrim College to train themselves for efficient service in God's kingdom as competent Sunday School teachers, youth leaders, ministers, and missionaries. It is the business of the church to discover, evangelize and help guide these young people to live useful Christian lives; it is the business of our Bible Colleges to educate, train, and establish these young people in Christian Grace, so they may effectively take their places in the Church and make an impact for God.

Rev. H. T. Mills, Secretary of Education of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, has expressed the thinking of the majority of the educators in the church in his last report to the General Board, when he said:

"We as a church are at the cross roads educationally and the turn of events in the next five years will largely determine the future course of our church. 'If' we haven't too many schools, one thing is certain, we have too few people seeking a Christian education with us. Are we reaching the young people in our area? If not, why not? Has the Lord ceased to call our sons and daughters into his service? This is not a problem that belongs to our college presidents, but to the whole church."

At the 1956 Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of W.P.C., definite plans were made for a forward move for the college. The curriculum was enlarged to attract a larger number of students. In keeping with the requirements of the Bible College Accrediting Association, we have added a fifth year of seminary-type of work to our Th. B. Course. Curriculum of the type should attract many of the ministers in our zone. In addition to the courses we have been offering, we have also added a four year Bachelor of Arts Course giving a B.A. Degree in Bible and Religion, which we trust will attract many more of our young people who are interested in Christian Education, but who do not necessarily want to take the ministerial and theological courses.

To further enrich the regular curriculum offered, we are planning to make available, in various fields of study, Fall and Spring Seminars. These seminar courses will consist of one week of concentrated Bible study in vital interest areas of Religion, taught by our own faculty, and other great teachers who are specialists in these fields.

In regard to financial support the Board has recommended to each of the districts in our Western School Zone to pass legislation and put into action a policy of an offering for W.P.C. every month at a major Sunday service. It is hoped that by this regular free-will offering method that approximately $10.00 per member per year can be raised. This amount of income from the churches of the zone and a maximum enrollment of 350 to 400 students will enable the school to operate on a sounder financial basis.

We are planning, praying, and working for a better and larger school in the coming year. With your cooperation and God's help we believe we shall see the desires of our heart in this regard.

Personal Report

This year completes my eighth year as President of the institution. I sincerely appreciate all who have prayed, worked, given, and stood by me during this time. The Administration covets your continued loyal support in this great work. Many times the load grows very heavy and we become extremely weary in well doing, but we take heart and become encouraged with the glorious fact that 'If God be for us, who can be against us?'

I have served as a full-time teacher in addition to my administrative duties as president. I have attended all the Board and Faculty meetings throughout the year, as well as the Leadership Conference of our General Church, held in Indianapolis, Indiana. I have visited the conference and camp meeting of this district, the Idaho-Washington district, and the Pacific Northwest district, besides visiting almost all the local churches in the entire school zone. I have traveled over 20,000 miles and have spoken in 112 services in the interest of Western Pilgrim College.

Respectfully submitted,

C. W. Thomas
