In Memoriam

Our hearts have been grieved by the loss of fellow-laborers during the year just past. However, being persuaded that they have risen to receive the Everlasting Prize, we sorrow not as those without hope, but are challenged by these godly examples to press on in anticipation of glorious reunion on the Resurrection Morning.

REV. WM. E. REED

Providence has overshadowed me with many mercies, and I have been the recipient of many more blessings than I deserved. To each of you, who have prayed for me and held up my hands in battle, I extend the deepest appreciation. I have endeavored under God to conduct the affairs of the District in keeping with the best interests of God's work.

I have a growing concern for the spiritual welfare of our church. Brethren, I submit to you that we cannot forfeit that touch of God which was upon the early church. When we become void of power, we then adopt and follow worldly pursuits endeavoring to establish the work of God. We live in restless times. The great seas of humanity are more troubled and agitated than ever before. Ideologies are in conflict; racial prejudices are so prevalent; currents of hate and lust and greed everywhere stain the moral concepts of God and life and love. The turbulence of waging wars and the fear of wars to come are as volcanoes belching out the threat of extinction to all mankind. The loss of faith in God is reflected in a loss of faith in men. The forces of evil in the world, the loss of love in the Church, the clash of the races brought about by the ever narrowing distance between nations, are all parts of an international frustration. History repeats itself over and over again in the never-ending melee of social and moral disintegration. And the church of Jesus Christ has ever had to endure the catastrophies which have hung over the generations of the past and even now threaten the present and obscure the future. But endure it has. The secret of faith which has brought the church through the troubled water of the past lives today in the hearts of many people. That faith coupled with the integrity of sanctified hearts is a guarantee to all the world that Christ and His church will ever tower "O'er the wrecks of time." Never were there truer words, "The gates of Hell shall not prevail against it."

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The grand total of our Foreign Missionary giving this year is $31,572.30. This is several thousand dollars more than has ever been given before by our District in any one year. Truly when the Book of Life is opened, there will be many names written therein, for which those who, by their offerings made their salvation possible, shall receive great reward.

While on the subject of Foreign Missions, I might point out that the missionary societies that have provided articles of clothing for the unfortunate of other lands have performed a great Christian service.

CHURCH EXTENSION

As I present the matter of Church Extension, I desire to mention the fact that we should be concerned that there are so many places where the message of Holiness is long over-due. However, our ambitions in this respect must be holy, and if they are we cannot give first place to organizational and numerical development. I trust what little home missionary work we have engaged in has been the product of a righteous zeal. It must be admitted that our gains are not many, but we must beware lest this fact cause in us an unsavory reaction.

We have at this time two fields where Pilgrim Holiness Churches are possibilities. One field is at Cambridge, Mass., and the other is Brooklyn, N. Y. In both places we have people who come from our Foreign Missionary work in the Islands. The difficulty seems to remain ever the same; that is, we lack men and money. The group at Cambridge is being pastored by Sisters Miller and MacFadgen. If our tabernacle could be moved into Brooklyn and strong leadership could be obtained, it is my opinion that a sizeable congregation would soon be gathered. This would cost several thousand dollars, and I see no immediate hope for our undertaking this enormous task.

I believe it will be encouraging to you to read our report from the Pittsfield church this year.

Bro. Lloyd Stuart is now holding services in Maryland, N. Y., in a Union Church. We appreciate his efforts and pray they will be fruitful.

I am glad to be able to report here concerning our District Home Missionary Rally which was held at Victory Grove on July 4. Several of our churches responded in an appeal to support Bro. Billie Bidwell in Cherry Valley for one year. We received about twenty-five hundred dollars in this offering.

OUR CAMP MEETINGS

I suppose we are the only District in our Church that operates three District Camps. This has some disadvantages and I have given considerable thought to the matter. I herewith present some conclusions to you.

All three of these camps were originated by men who evidently had a concern for the fields where they are located. God has been faithful to the sacrifice made, and has saved some people in each camp who might not have been saved otherwise. I'm sure all of us are grateful to God for this.

Having three camps does serve three different zones of our District. If we had but one camp, a great many of our people could not attend a Pilgrim camp. If we had just one camp, all the preachers would be asked to devote one week of work and attend the services. That is all that is asked of the preachers now. I would like to present four ways we might more efficiently maintain our camp meetings:

1. Every preacher should come to his zone camp on work week.
2. Every preacher should be present on clean-up day.
3. We should talk about our camp to our people and urge them to attend.
4. We should have better ministerial representation to our services.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

I take some real satisfaction from remarks that our camp evangelists make about our Young People. They always seem impressed with the number we have and the modesty of their appearance. Allow me to say that this is gratifying, indeed. Our efforts have been to make our young people feel that they are a part of us. For the size of our district, God has given us as many spiritual young people proportionally as will be found in any district of our church.

The "Crusade of Prayer" sponsored last year, which was followed by three night Youth Rallies, proved a blessing in many places.

I would like to suggest that we do all we can to tie our precious young people into the spiritual tide of our church.

OUR DISTRICT PROPERTIES

Some additions and improvements have been made to church properties this year which add to their value and comfort.

It was my privilege to dedicate a new and spacious church at Ogdensburg. The hard work and sacrifice of Bro. Barton made this possible, and our prayer is that his vision will be rewarded in the salvation of many hearts.

The church at Pittsfield was formally dedicated this year. It was a real blessing to witness the great progress of such a nice church from such a small beginning. I appreciate the zeal and vision and hard work of Bro. Babcock as he has carried on this work.

Bro. McCulley redecorated the interior of the church at Bloomingdale, and has tentative plans for redecorating the parsonage.

Bro. Finch and his people have done a marvelous piece of work at Sayre in erecting a brick veneer church, which is second to none in our district. This building is not complete at this date, but will soon be ready for worship.

Bro. Stuart has considerably changed their place of worship at East Worcester by painting the interior and installing pews.

During the absence of a pastor at Schenectady, the people proceeded to do considerable remodeling in the parsonage.

The Ravena church enlarged their parsonage by adding two bedrooms. They also redecorated the interior and remodeled the kitchen.

THINNED RANKS

It is with sad hearts that we view the thinning of our ranks as old soldiers of the Cross lay down their armour. Brothers W. E. Reed and William Shoemaker have, after years of labor in the harvest fields, gone on to receive the reward of the faithful. The wonderful thing about it is that even though their sun is set, there is yet an afterglow lingering above the hills. As our hearts grievously ponder our loss, we are reminded that we, too, are travelers toward eternity. May we be as faithful as those who have left us.

PERSONAL REPORT

In discharging the duties of my office I have tried with good conscience to be fair to all. I have attempted by example and ministry to hold up the standards of our District. When counsel has been asked, I have done my best to give it. When I have offered criticism I have also examined my own heart. I have been careful that my pleasures of home did not interfere with my duties.

I submit the following as an approximate presentation of my activities for the past year.

I officiated at three camps.

I devoted two weeks of work to Vermontville, a week at Binghamton, and two weeks at Victory Grove.

I met all of our church boards but four, and three of these changed my date making it inconvenient for me to do so.

I conducted fourteen annual meetings.

I visited all of our churches twice or more.

I conducted one week-end meeting and dedicated two churches.

I attended one General Board meeting, and went to another a week early and came home before it convened.

I attended one Superintendent's meeting at Indianapolis, and two Board Meetings of the Allentown Bible College.

I wrote ten articles for the Pilgrim News, and one for the Advocate.

I conducted one funeral.

I traveled approximately 20,000 miles.

Respectfully submitted,

O. L. Fay
