He emphasized that the minister must be blameless in conduct, blameless in duty and blameless in doctrine. Francis St. Clair and Charles Hook were duly ordained after which the congregation sang, "Rock of Ages."

The General Superintendent then gave a short address in explaining the Ministerial Benefit Association and the Burial Association.

The Minutes of both the afternoon and evening sessions were read and approved.

It was moved and seconded that we adjourn: Carried.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

August 9, 1937.

To the Thirty-third Annual Assembly, Ohio District.

Greetings in the Name of the Lord!

Submitting my first report as District Superintendent of Ohio, I am glad it has been a year of unbroken fellowship with the Lord. Many have been the times I have prayed, shouted and wept as I have driven over the state. While we were called upon in the very beginning of the year to pass through the vale of shadows, God's sustaining, comforting grace has been sufficient and the kindness and thoughtfulness of the people of God could not have been exceeded. We are truly grateful to God and His people for their help and comfort and feel a greater burden to help other young people serve the Lord.

The year has been filled with varied interests and challenging problems but the Lord has ever been near to help. The encouragement I have received from our general officials and the cooperation of the District Council, pastors, laymen and other friends have served to lighten the load and make the work a pleasure.

Most of the churches were visited three times and I also answered many special calls and made other visits where needs presented themselves. Not once have I refused to respond to a call for help nor have I failed to do my best regardless of how heavy the load or how perplexing the problem. I love to lift where the load is heavy. I have preached 194 times, made 209 visits to churches, presided at 93 board meetings, 8 annual church meetings, 6 council meetings, 1 District Ministerial meeting and the glorious camp-meeting just closed. Have administered sacrament to hundreds of souls, saw more than a score of seekers at the altar and traveled more than 20,000 miles on the district. I also attended 2 General Board meetings and 1 school board meeting at Bible Holiness Seminary. I dedicated 2 churches—Leesburg and Mt. Olivet, and assisted in dedicating the beautiful new church at West Carrollton.

Our main effort this year has been to organize and encourage our churches and pastors, and establish a practical financial plan.

Three new churches are ready to be admitted into the Conference; Fostoria with 44 members, Piqua with 23 members and Salt Creek Valley with 9 members.

When the flood emergency arose I contacted the stricken area by wire, by mail and in person as soon as contact could be made. We appreciate the quick generous response to the call for Flood Relief. As a result the buildings are in better condition today than they were before the Flood. A full report of all that was done may be had from the District Treasurer.

Unselfish, untiring, noble work has been done by our pastors. They are a splendid group of ladies and gentlemen. Many gracious revivals have been held throughout the year where many souls have found the Lord in saving and sanctifying power. A forward move and a spirit of cooperation and aggression is manifested among us. No department of the church has been neglected. Our pastors and people are going after souls. The reports of the statistical committee and the District Treasurer ought to bring encouraging news of numerical progress and financial gains. Let's work and pray that every church may be a Gold Star church next year. If we stick to our task, bringing the lost to Christ, we have no competition.

Our evangelists, too, have rendered splendid assistance in our efforts for souls and the Pilgrim Holiness Church. We should support and keep these good people going. May the Lord bless them.

I urge that all pastors and evangelists who labor among us boost the Pilgrim Holiness Church, for it is the one church that stands unitedly on the fundamental doctrines of the Bible.

For Young People's work the state was divided into 7 zones, each zone having an appointed leader who has done good work holding rallies at almost every church. These rallies were inspirational and encouraging to our young people. The hearty cooperation and tireless efforts of these leaders resulted in the great State Raily just closed. Mose of the larger churches of the State held revivals especially for young people, with gratifying results, using evangelists of their own choosing. Ohio young people are second to none in spirituality, talent, ability and cooperation in the work of the church. As you advance them your church will advance. Lord in saving and sanctifying power. A forward move and a spirit of

Before I close my report I wish to make some suggestion for the Assembly to consider:

- (1) Some plan for organizing and regulating missions.
- (2) Home Missionary work under the direction of the Council.
- (3) Same financial plan for the District except that we ask $.50 per member for District Home Missions.
- (4) That the addresses of all churches, pastors, Sunday school Superintendents, and Young People's presidents be placed in the minutes.
- (5) That all churches push Sunday School work.
- (6) Formulate plans to develop the camp-ground, building cottages, etc.
- (7) All who do not pay at camp be given a Worker's ticket which will make them subject to call for any duty.

With the present spirit of cooperation and fellowship prevailing, we predict a greater year of advancement on every line in Ohio.

Yours in Him,

C. P. Pridgen
