To the Ohio District Assembly
Springfield, Ohio.

My dear brethren:

Greetings in the love and fellowship of our risen living Lord.

Today you have met and are on the threshold of another Annual Assembly. During this conference reports of your labors, accomplishments and successes will be reported. Through these there is a measure of reward here in a good conscience in that you have faithfully discharged your responsibilities to God and your fellow men. But out beyond this arena of battle lies your heavenly reward, which you do well to always keep in view.

Pivoting from your actions here you will swing forward toward another year of labor and toil in the vineyard of the Lord. During this Assembly action will be taken that will either accelerate or retard your progress. Let us all pray that all that is done here may be to His glory and the furtherance of the Gospel. May the Holy Spirit guide you in all your deliberations and legislation, that it may result in the salvation of souls. You are laboring on a wonderfully fertile district, a very needy territory with many open doors. You have done well, and there is every assurance that God will help you and lead you in your planning for His work in the future.

Since it is not possible for me to meet with you this year, and owing to our dire financial shortage which makes it almost impossible to send one of my assistants, according to Section 12, Paragraph 2 of the Manual, I have asked Brother Pridgen to kindly preside for me in this Assembly. I am sure he will have the kindest cooperation and consideration of all the brethren.

May the dear Lord bless your labors through this Assembly to the degree that, when the Assembly is over, everyone will feel in his heart that God has met with you and it was indeed good to be here. In all of our battles and burdens here let us watch and pray constantly that we may be accounted worthy to be at the "general assembly and church of the firstborn." God bless you. Please be assured of my prayers, and if at any time I can be of service to you, it is always my pleasure to do so.

Your friend and brother in Him,

W. L. Surbrook,
General Superintendent

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

August 14, 1939

Greetings to the Pilgrims of Ohio in their 35th Annual Assembly:

In this, my third report as District Superintendent of our work in Ohio, I wish to acknowledge the guiding hand and faithful help of the blessed Trinity and the faithful cooperation of the district Council, the Pilgrims, and friends. All have stood loyally by in every way possible.

Our pastors have labored faithfully. Some show substantial gains, some have held their own, others have lost; but all are hard working servants of the Lord. Our evangelists, too, are capable, loyal, and faithful. I have rejoiced as I have watched their slates in the Advocate, that they are usually kept busy.

Good gains are shown in the Sunday School department. Our people are more and more seeing the importance of this work and are getting back of it. We must save the children and train them for God. Too much stress cannot be laid upon Bible memory work.

A live and growing interest in foreign missions is manifest, which is a true sign of genuine spirituality. Home missions will be reported separately.

Our Ohio Young People are spiritual, active and aggressive, and are a very dynamic force in our churches. We have 41 organized societies. During the year 53 zone meetings have been held throughout the state, in which 42 persons have sought the Lord. The nine zone chairmen have given faithful cooperation and the Lord has blessed their efforts.

Personally, I have never worked harder nor enjoyed work more than this year. My activities have included 246 visits to the churches, which is an average of more than 3 visits to each church; 58 board meetings; 16 annual meetings; 2 weddings; 2 funerals; preached 251 times with 165 seekers at the altar, and travelled 29,600 miles.

Most of our churches have improved or beautified their buildings in one way or the other. At North Bend, we dedicated a beautiful new chapel for Rev. Charles Farthing; had an opening service for J. R. Walters in his new church at Hamilton, which they succeeded in obtaining after months of difficulty. We also dedicated a nice frame church at Lancaster where Ruth Finnefrock is pastor, and dedicated new pews for Rev. Ben Awe at Nelsonville. New buildings are under way at Miamisburg, Bradford and Columbus which will be a credit to our work.

The challenge of the age is great, our working day is short. Let us gird ourselves afresh to press the claims of the Lord upon every soul.

Yours in Him,

C. P. Pridgen.

IN MEMORIAM

We, as members of the Ohio District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church convened at the thirty-fifth Annual Assembly, desire to honor the memory of several whose home-going during the past year has been felt by all of us.

Rev. George B. Kulp, who served our church as General Superintendent more than sixteen years, slipped away to heaven July 21, 1939, at the advanced age of almost ninety-four. He has been promoted from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant, with many trophies of grace to lay down at the Master's feet.

Rev. Melvin F. Pratt, another veteran of the Cross, answered the call of his Maker in May, after a long life of sacrifice and service. He was the founder of Beulah Rescue Home, Terre Haute, Ind., and its Superintendent until death called him home.

Rev. Harry Holtzapple, a faithful pastor of our District for ten years, passed to his reward April 3, 1939. He is remembered by all for his kindness, courtesy, courage, and unselfishness. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to his devoted wife and daughter Theda.

Mrs. Adda Wachenschwanz, wife of Rev. Charles Wachenschwanz, licensed minister of the District, was called from her duties to her eternal home in May. She was faithful, consecrated and devoted to her children's and husband's interests. Her influence will be long felt among loved ones and friends.
