DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the thirty-eighth Conference of the Ohio District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, greetings:

It is through the tender mercies of our wonderful Lord that we are permitted to be gathered. Therefore, we trust our every heart is humbled and submitted to Him so that He may be able to help us accomplish His purpose in our coming together at this time.

The worst war that has ever cursed humanity is now in progress threatening to destroy Christian civilization and our democratic way of life. Hundreds of our people have already been called into the service of our country, many more are being called, and still others will be called.

God's grace and power are given and suited for emergencies and hard places. We dare not, we must not, lower our standards or compromise our doctrines. If we will stand by them in these strenuous times, God will give us a greater place in the reconstruction days after the war.

We have enjoyed a year of friendly co-operation and Christian fellowship, and the results have been shown in revivals, increased attendance and membership, and the greatest financial year of our history. However, the year has not been without its burdens, heartaches and problems, which, without Divine wisdom and strength, we could not have borne.

In watching our evangelists' slates, we have observed that generally they have been kept busy, which speaks well for them, and their reports are not to be ashamed of.

Our missionary interest was stirred by the visitation and ministry of Brother Deal, Miss Slater, and our General Secretary, P. W. Thomas. At heart our people are missionary. They preach, pray and support missions. So far as I know, this District has never until this year succeeded in paying its missionary budget in full. This year we paid it 132%. But of our General Budget we paid only a little more than 72%. We trust next year that our General Budget, too, may be overpaid.

The total receipts were more than 51% over last year. Truly the blessing of the Lord is upon this growing District.

"They that honor me I will Honor." If we were faithful to tithe during depression days, how gladly should we give God His portion in these days of greater prosperity. This is the year we should pay off our individual and congregational debts, and where possible, make improvements and build parsonages. Several of our churches have paid off their indebtedness and burned their mortgages. These churches included Port Clinton, Marion 2nd, Toledo and Springfield 1st. Many others are rapidly cutting their indebtedness down.

We have just closed one of the greatest camp meetings ever conducted on this hill for the depth of spirituality and power for which we praise the Lord.

A new lunch stand was built which met a real need. The camp the district completely out of debt and all arrangements have been made to build a new tabernacle as soon as government restrictions are lifted.

During the year I have traveled 31,000 miles in the interest of the District; preached 165 times, made more than 300 calls on churches, held 19 Annual Meetings, 129 Board Meetings, attended 12 Young Peoples' Zone Rallies and held two revivals at Williamsport and Dayton churches, had one funeral, three weddings, attended one Ministerial Meeting, one District Superintendent's Meeting and the General Conference, besides many other meetings and duties too numerous to mention, also cared for an ever-increasing volume of mail. I am still saved and sanctified and pressing on, out and up for God.

We dedicated three parsonages and four churches. The parsonages are at Hamilton, Arcanum and Marion 1st. The Churches are Carbon-dale, Berrysville, Grand Rapids and Sandusky. Many churches have remodeled and redecored. And, too, we have several lots purchased; plans are drawn for some churches, while some are already under construction. At least four will be ready for dedication within the next few weeks.

The Marion 2nd, Toledo, Elmwood and perhaps other churches, have become self-supporting.

Our Ministerial Meeting in April was one of the greatest ever held for depth of spirit, attendance and state-wide interest.

Churches have been organized this year as follows:

January 18, Sandusky, 30 members, Rev. J. B. Zeits, 620 Reese St., Sandusky, Ohio.

March 15, West Manchester, Rev. W. W. Wilcke, W. Manchester, Ohio.

April 26, "West End" Cincinnati, 16 members, Rev. Irene Remy.

Rev. J. B. Zeits led the forces in Sandusky, they bought property, for church and parsonage and have it on a good working basis financially.

Through the vision, faith and perseverance of Miss Irene Remy, the West End Cincinnati Church has become a reality.

West Manchester church is coming to us through the faithful efforts of Rev. W. W. Wilcke.

As a people, we should band together as one big family and pull as if the only hope of the world were in what we are doing. As a holy people the world is against us, but let us remember, the harder the world presses, the closer to us the Lord walks.

I have tried to be just and fair to all and partial to none.

Yours in Him,
C. P. Pridgen

FIRST SITTING

The Thirty-eighth session of the Annual Conference of the Ohio District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church convened at 8:30 A. M. Monday, August 10, 1942, at the Sugar Grove Camp Ground, Springfield, Ohio.

The Conference was opened with the congregational song, "Blessed Assurance," led by Rev. Marcella Dean. The devotional service was led by Rev. C. P. Pridgen, District Superintendent. He read Malachi 3 and gave a brief exhortation to keep our minds stayed on God.

Prayer was offered by Rev. L. R. Roberts, Assistant District Superintendent.

Rev. C. P. Pridgen, District Superintendent, then introduced to the conference, the General Superintendent, Rev. W. L. Surbrook, who read I Peter 5 and gave a very inspirational message on Ministerial responsibilities to devotion, doctrine and duties. He stated that he who feeds a flock must be well fed and blessed. His private devotion must be kept spiritual so that he may feed others. Genuine devotion calls for genuine sincerity—so sincere that those who know us best will have faith in our religion. Our family, our neighbors, and our creditors will have confidence in us. He stated further that it makes a world of difference in what we believe. Few people ever rise spiritually above that which they believe. Our thinking determines our spirituality. Pastors must guard their pulpits against heresy, and that which will reflect on the atonement or the word of God. He then discussed at length our church motto: In essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, and in all things charity. He declared that faith founded on the immutable promises of God will take us through. Be sure that the doctrine is Bible, and where the Scripture makes sense seek no other sense.

After the roll call of the ministers and delegates by the secretary, the following were authorized to act as delegates of their churches: Gordon Baumgardner, Piqua Church; Mrs. M. Rickner, Shreve Church, and Sister E. P. Qualls and Edna Mae Gee, Portsmouth 1st Church.

Rev. W. L. Surbrook delivered a very inspirational message, emphasizing these standards as are given in the Scripture. (1) The husband of one wife. (2) Be Vigilant. The secret of many a pastor's success is his calling. (3) Be sober. To be serious without sadness. (4) Be of good behavior. "You can grow a pumpkin in a few months, but it takes a lifetime to grow an oak. You can build a reputation in a few years, but it takes a lifetime to build a character." (5) Keep out of debt. (6) Given to hospitality, be courteous, congenial, and not hard to please. (7) Apt to teach, be a student of the word. (8) Given to sound doctrine, declare the whole council of God.
