In Memoriam

MRS. D. I. McCRACKEN

Mrs. D. I. McCracken, the wife of one of our pastors and a godly woman, went to meet her Lord suddenly June 25, 1950. Sister McCracken not only graced the parsonage but was a preacher in her own right and often ministered to God's people. Ordained to the ministry, our sister labored incessantly for the salvation of souls and the advancement of God's cause.

To Reverend D. I. McCracken, to Agailia, the daughter, and to the mother of the deceased we offer our sympathy and heaven's comfort.

WILLIAM D. WOLFE

William D. Wolfe, an esteemed layman and a district trustee for many years was called home March 4, 1950. Brother Wolfe was an unassuming man, but his quiet godliness has left an indelible impression on the church in which he held his membership and in the community where he lived.

As well we would remember the large group of other faithful, consistent, godly laymen who have put aside earthly membership for a place in the heavenly congregation.

GENERAL TRIBUTE

It is only fitting that this Conference stand and dedicate a moment of silent tribute as a memorial to these saints whose earthly work has consummated in holy triumph. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord . . . that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

SPECIAL MINUTE

From Monday Evening Sitting July 3, 1950

"The Conference with a wholehearted, unanimous standing vote carried Resolution No. 7, and sang spontaneously, 'We'll Work 'Till Jesus Comes.' God's blessing was especially evident on this piece of business."

RESOLUTION #7, 1950

(General Resolution #16)

INASMUCH, as the twenty-first General Conference of the Pilgrim Holiness Church has adopted a program of evangelism to win souls and strengthen the cords of the church, and

INASMUCH, as the establishment of 200 new churches has been set as a goal for the entire denomination during the next quadrennium, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, That we as a District Conference give our united support to this program of soul-saving and evangelism, establish goals comparable to our strength in the denomination, and begin an aggressive four-year District Home Missionary and Church Extension endeavor with the following goals:

(1) New Churches. At least 12 new churches should be established during the quadrennium, or three churches a year; (2) Sunday School Scholars. At least 800 new scholars enrolled in our Sunday Schools, or 200 new scholars a year; (3) Average Sunday School Attendance. An increase of at least 600 in average Sunday School attendance, or an increase of 150 a year; (4) Prayer and Fasting. Every pastor shall exemplify and urge his people the solemn and sacredness of intercession and physical self-denial as a requisite to the success of this program; (5) Soul Winning. The major emphasis in every gathering from the morning worship service to the board meeting shall be the harvesting of souls and the advance of the cause of Christ.

MINUTES

Monday Morning, July 3, 1950—9:00 A. M., A. B. I. Auditorium

The thirty-seventh Annual Conference of the Pennsylvania-New Jersey District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church was opened by the District Superintendent, Rev. J. Franklin Lint.

Brother Oliver G. Holden led the Conference in singing " 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus", and "Hiding In Thee".

Brother Raymond Hoffman led in prayer.

Brother Lint presented the General Secretary of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, Rev. S. M. Stikeleather, as presiding officer of the District Conference.

Brother Stikeleather proceeded at once with the conducting of the Communion Service as provided for by the 1949 District Conference. He read Luke 22:14-20; and I Cor. 11:23-34, and made a few pertinent remarks emphasizing God's mercy on our human shortcomings and the necessity of charity in our consideration for our fellow-Christians.

The response to the invitations to come to the communion table seemed to be unanimous. The presence of God beautified the whole service.

The Chairman asked for the Roll Call. Upon its completion, he presented Rev. R. A. Beltz, General Secretary of Church Extension and Home Missions.

The burden of Brother Beltz' message was the General Conference Program of Evangelism, setting forth a revival program throughout the Church which would yield, among other advances, 200 new churches and boost our membership to 50,000. He proposed that the 200 new churches should be established through work in three fields: (1) Outside the bounds of organized Districts through the General Department of Home Missions; (2) Within the organized Districts through an aggressive District Home Missionary Campaign; (3) In communities near the Local Churches through cottage prayer meetings, Sunday Schools, and revivals promoted by the local churches.

He gave an inspiring account of how God had honored the faith of Rev. Paul H. Hollmann in pioneering the work of the Pilgrim Holiness Church in Milwaukee.

He closed his appeal with mention of Brother W. H. Pratt's new book on the life of his father, Rev. Melvin Pratt entitled "God Amid the Shadows", the proceeds from which were to go entirely for the work of missions. A good number of the books were sold immediately.

Brother Stikeleather and Brother Lint expressed the appreciation of the Conference for Brother Beltz' visit.

A motion carried that the sittings convene from 9:00 a. m. to 11:30 a. m.; 2:00 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.; and 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.

REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To this 37th Annual Conference Greetings!

It is with a sense of appreciation to God for the blessings of His grace that we gather for this meeting. I had planned to report to the Conference that the hand of death was stayed from all our ministers' families. The homegoing of Sister McCracken on Sunday afternoon, June 25, makes this impossible. Sister McCracken was the wife of our Muncy pastor, Rev. D. I. McCracken, and was herself an ordained minister in our Conference. Our heartfelt sympathy and prayers are with our brother.

Revivals: With few exceptions, our churches conduct at least two revivals a year. While some of these meetings followed the ordinary trend, good preaching—good singing—good spirit, there were a few that are reported as definite soul saving meetings. New people were saved and have become a part of our church.

Churches and Parsonages: Soon after the close of last Conference, the new church at Stroudsburg was dedicated to the Lord, completed and free of debt.

A church building is under construction now at Jamesburg, New Jersey. This will be a concrete block structure.

The Delaware Run church is building a new place of worship.

The North Rome Church has decided to purchase a church building and move it to their lot, instead of building as was originally planned.

Millersburg is engaged in an extensive remodeling program that will increase the seating capacity and utility of the building considerably.

Both Cherryville and Milroy have improved their Sunday School facilities by constructing basement rooms.

Ashland built a new parsonage and accomplished the remarkable feat for our day of not spending one penny for labor. While the building is not complete in detail, it is very livable with furnace and running water. Much credit is due the pastor, Rev. Charles Jester, for his leadership and untiring labors. The Sunbury Pilgrims purchased another parsonage that much more adequately meets the need.

Bush Hollow has a parsonage under construction.

We have a total of 50 church buildings and 39 parsonages, with two churches and one parsonage under construction.

Sunday Schools and Youth: A District Sunday School and Youth Conference was held at Williamsport and Reading with Rev. Paul F. Elliott, General Secretary of Sunday School and Youth work, as the speaker. The purpose of having the Conference in two churches was to make it accessible to more of our people.

The district is divided into five zones with active young people's rallies under the leadership of a zone representative in each.

A Sunday School Convention, under the direction of the Sunday School Committee was also conducted in all of the zones. Some of our Sunday Schools have conducted Daily Vacation Bible Schools that have proven to be a blessing.

New Churches: Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Kresge, of Trenton, N. J. started cottage prayer services about twenty-five miles northeast of their pastorate at Jamesburg. These services grew in spirit and interest, and after several months a tent was pitched for a meeting. A house was purchased and used for a place of worship. Last October the Superintendent, conducted a revival there and on Saturday night organized a Pilgrim Holiness Church with eleven members. A new church building is under construction at present.

In February of this year a meeting was held in a school house at Rockville, Pennsylvania, just north of Harrisburg. A group of people, many of whom had been members of the Pilgrim Holiness Church previously, were conducting cottage meetings and then located the school house. A good interest was manifest in the Revival with a number of seekers. The evangelist, Rev. Raymond Hoffman, conducted regular services after the revival closed. A number of our ministers preached from time to time. By action of the Council, the group was organized into a Pilgrim Holiness Church on May 30, with eighteen members.

Home Missions: The last Conference granted the Home Missionary Committee the authority to employ a Home Missionary. The committee, feeling it was the desire of the Conference to have a Home Missionary worker, took definite steps to employ the same. A contract was drawn and it appeared all would be taken care of several months ago. A delay in the plans on the part of the missionary has forced a postponement, however.

The department has given assistance to the work at Jamesburg, N. J., Quakertown, Lebanon, Bridgeton, N. J., Gloucester, N. J., and York.

Pastoral Changes: Fifteen of our churches have changed pastors the last year.

Personal Report: June 20, 1949 to June 21, 1950. I preached one hundred and sixty times and held one hundred and twenty-six board meetings, two revivals, two week-end meetings, six council meetings, four Home Missionary Committee meetings, nine annual church meetings, five special church meetings, one young people's committee meeting, one Sunday School Committee meeting, and two ministerial convention committee meetings. I attended the District Superintendents' Conference, the General Conference, A. B. I. Laymen's Fellowship meeting, two Bible School Board meetings, six Sunbury Camp Board meetings, and two Bald Eagle Valley Camp Board meetings. I conducted four communion services, presided at the Ministerial Convention, the Y. P. and S. S. Conference, and one Sunday School Convention. I dedicated one church building, and two parsonages, and organized two churches.

I have appreciated the fellowship of the brethren. You have given me the greatest consideration. Your prayers have been the source of inspiration and courage.

My contact with the Allentown Bible Institute was not only the attendance at Board meetings, to speak in Chapel, and the visits to the Special Services, but I thoroughly enjoyed being present in several classes and appreciating the work of the school at close range. I have confidence, and my wholehearted support is for the full salvation program of the Institute in training and preparing young men and women for active Christian Service.

I received for my services the following: District Treasurer $3200; Offerings from the churches $969.22; Revivals and week-end meetings $225.00; and Gifts and Donations $32.10.

Miles travelled—28,000.

Respectfully submitted,
J. Franklin Lint
