as the conference bar.

It was moved and passed that the sittings should be from 8 A.M.

delegates were seated with a few last minute changes.

No Prayer In Schools

The District Conference of the Pilgrim Holiness Church while in session in Jamestown, Tenn., on July 9th., went on record as follows:

We are much concerned over the recent action of the Supreme Court in respect to the matter of prayer in the Public Schools.

We know the subject is a complex one, involving the matter of Church and State separation, the rights of minorities and majorities in a pluralistic society, under a Democracy. We do not impute Atheistic or Communistic attitudes as influence the decision of the Supreme Court.

We know further that prayer in the home and in the church are the most desirable and laudable religious exercises.

But the question raised by the Supreme Court decision is this: Must our children be raised in godless schools or in schools permitting, encouraging and fostering faith in God.

Note: In taking this action, the conference urged Tennessee Pilgrims and Christian friends everywhere to write both National Senators and Congressmen from our own State, urging that they use their offices to promote such legislation that would keep our Schools from becoming totally secularistic, and find in them place for the recognition of God.
DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To our General Superintendent, Rev. W. F. Neff, delegates and friends assembled at this, our 29th annual Conference of the Tennessee District, I greet you in Jesus' name.

This District Conference follows hard after the 24th General Conference of the Pilgrim Holiness Church assembled at Winona Lake, Indiana. Those of us who had the privilege of attending this great gathering have a fresh awareness of God's hand upon our beloved Zion. The gain of 5,591 in church membership, both at home and in other lands, and the 7.7% increase in Sunday School attendance for the past quadrennium give us good reason to thank God for His blessings upon the church.

At the General Conference our church chose Rev. Melvin H. Snyder, Rev. William H. Neff, and Rev. P. W. Thomas to lead us onward for the next four years as our Board of General Superintendents. It has been our privilege to have Rev. R. G. Flexon, and later Rev. Melvin H. Snyder, superintend our area, and now we welcome General Superintendent W. H. Neff. On behalf of the District, may I assure him of our prayers and concern.

As we hear the reports of this District Conference, we will review the successes and failures of this past year. We are glad for all the victories won. For the past 29 years there has been a voice crying out in this state for true holiness. We are not alone and we welcome the cooperation and fellowship of other holiness groups as together we seek to aid lost souls to Christ. There has been positive improvement in our church buildings and parsonages in the past several years, as well as this past conference year, but we have endeavored to keep the message of "Christ as Savior" preeminent. The men and women of this district have been sacrificial. These are not idle words, for one needs only to browse through the conference journals of past years to see that what I say is true. Thank God for each and every victory, and we are ready to admit humanity and weakness in every defeat.

The work has only begun. We are not satisfied. Satisfaction with the past status quo means only stalemate. This by God's help we must not have. There are too many lost souls around our doors. Too many cities across this great state have no holiness church. Some have only one or two. As we read our report I trust it will challenge us to do more.

Church Improvements

We give thanks for material blessings.

Chattanooga.
Painted Sunday School room and hall and erected new church sign outside church.

Clinton.
Painted 3 rooms, 1 hall in the parsonage, painted and fixed room for nursery, tiled bathroom floor in church, rebuilt chimney in parsonage and purchased 2 large window fans for church.

Jamestown.
Purchased the following for their Sunday School: 2 electric heaters, 225 folding chairs, 125 new song books, 2 new Sunday School banners, and new bulletin board. Built new room, bought another bus and painted it, and made repairs on parsonage.

Jellico.
Moved into new Sunday School unit. Redecorated parsonage inside and out.

LaFollette (West).
Installed new hot water heater in parsonage, painted outside and inside church, installed new church sign outside church, and ran water line to parsonage.
McEwen.
Papered the upstairs rooms in parsonage, built cabinet under and around sink, enlarged the pulpit in church and bought new pews for church.

Lakeview
Completed two Sunday School rooms.

Monterey.
Enlarged the bathroom in parsonage, put new roof on parsonage porch, and placed new hand rails on the steps at entrance of church.

Morristown.
Completed new church auditorium. This gives them a nice brick structure with a full basement. Most of the finish work inside was completed this past winter and the dedication was held May 27, 1962.

Moss.
Poured the concrete floor to complete the church basement.

Nashville (Woodbine).
Refinished floors of the parsonage, painted outside of the church.

Paris.
Enclosed gable end of the church with new siding and put up cornish, painted outside trim, waterproofed rest rooms, and gravel-ed parking area.

District Home Missions
Here again we have the greatest need of our district. We can see the need all around us. After 29 years we fall so short of what I would call the norm—one new church a year. Since we are limited as a district, may I urge each church, as I have in the past, to be on the alert for opportunities to work in neighboring communities.

LaFollette (East).
Put a new roof on their church. This work for the past year has been under the leadership of Rev. O. H. Cart, who due to unforeseen circumstances will be unable to continue and at the moment needs our prayers and support. A new housing project is now being erected just across the street.

Nashville (Rosebank).
At present they are putting a new roof on the church annex, sliding doors have been installed to separate the chapel from the living quarters, and new church signs have been installed.

Oak Ridge.
Began construction of a new 30' x 80' church building which will give a nice auditorium, 5 class rooms and a nursery. They have purchased about 1½ acres.

General and District Interest
We can see by the report that this is a record year for Sunday School attendance. For this we thank God. Church membership has not kept pace, but we trust with new people coming they will find help in Christ.

We are not satisfied with our giving to the United Stewardship Fund, but I not that our General Church specified giving often more than doubles this. If we reach new people for God, our giving to General and District interest will soon increase, I am sure.

Personal Report
It has been a joy to work with the pastors and Pilgrim laity across the Tennessee District. Your cooperation is deeply appreciated. I traveled 26,525 miles in the interest of the District and gospel work, presided over six council meetings, worked at least 56 days on camp ground and district parsonage, made a number of trips in the interest of District Church Extension, held four revivals off the District, one camp meeting and two revivals in the District, made at least three visits to each church, conducted our annual meetings, attended a meeting of area District Superintendents in Indianapolis, attended the Church Leaders Conference, attended one board meeting at Southern Pilgrim College, dedicated the Morristown church at a special service for that purpose, covered the District with General Superintendent Melvin H. Snyder in two special rallies, met with pastors of each zone in the interest of a lay visitation program, assisted in preparation of both Camp Meeting and Ministerial Convention, and prepared the district page for the “Volunteer Views”.

I feel it an honor and a privilege to serve.
Respectfully submitted,
L. E. Galyon

ASSISTANT DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

I have endeavored to support my District Superintendent by counsel and cooperation. I have appreciated laboring on the Tennessee District and will continue to pray for this segment of the Kingdom.
It shall be a great joy to observe the progress of the Tennessee Pilgrims.
Sincerely in Him,
L. B. Reese

DISTRICT MISSIONARY PRESIDENT’S REPORT

There are ten organized Societies in the District. These Societies have contributed to the work of Missions by sending boxes to the foreign fields consisting of variety boxes, band women’s uniforms, literature, etc. They have also made and brought quilts to Camp. One Society made all the draperies for the boys’ dormitory. Monthly support is given to the Reynolds, a missionary family, by one Society.
The total financial contributions by the Societies and churches for the fiscal year 1961-62 were $1,541.21.

One Society was reorganized during the year. There are also two unorganized Societies that are active and express the desire to organize when possible. There are seven churches that have no Missionary Society.
Plans were made and carried through to have booths built in the Camp tabernacle for display of Missionary work. Seven nice displays were made. The Jamestown church display received first-place award and the West LaFollette church display received the second-place award.
By the 1963 Camp we plan to build more booths and have a larger number of the Societies and churches make a display.
We also hope that in time we will be able to report that each church has an active Missionary Society.
Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Chester Rhoad

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY’S REPORT

I have enjoyed serving the Tennessee District as Sunday School Promotional Secretary this past year. I have gathered and compiled eleven reports for the “Volunteer Views” bulletin, and have traveled 200 miles in the interest of the Sunday Schools.
Respectfully submitted,
C. L. Cook
CONDOLENCE COMMITTEE’S REPORT

Brother Lee Cagle, a member of the Chattanooga church for about twenty years, went to his reward in May of 1962. He is missed by all.

Mrs. Julia Jared departed this life April 15, 1962. She was a member of the Needmore Pilgrim Holiness Church at McEwen over a long period of years. She professed a standing of good grace until the end.

Miss Betty Schroek departed this life February 20, 1962, at the age of 8 years 9 months. She was an attendant and member of the McEwen Pilgrim Holiness Sunday School. She was a very pleasant and lovely patient for the two months of her illness in the hospital, and was saved and ready to go when the summons came.

Harry O. Cline, father of Mrs. I. C. Gardner, passed away in February, 1961. He was converted a few days before his death. Also, Mrs. Gardner’s brother, Harry Cline, Jr., passed away in June, 1961. Mrs. Gardner is the wife of Rev. I. C. Gardner, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness Church in Elizabethton.

DISTRICT YOUNG PEOPLE’S PRESIDENT’S REPORT

To our beloved District Superintendent, fellow laborers on the various levels, delegates and visiting friends. We greet this conference with a personal testimony that the grace of God still abounds.

We thank the Lord for the victories and the measures of success that have been realized throughout the District. We wish to thank the pastors and their Youth leaders for the fine improvement in getting in the Youth reports to the “Volunteer Views.”

As to our report, we have traveled over 2000 miles this year in District Youth work, including a trip to Allentown, Pa., made in the company of the Sunday School promotional Secretary, as delegates to our National Sunday School and Youth Leader’s Conference.

Our rounds of the various zones was one of rich fellowship and the response was good. Our attendance was 272 for the four services and our offering was $131.19. We attended one called Youth Council meeting at Jamestown, one at the Ministerial Meeting, where we read a prepared paper with regards to our responsibilities, our reactions and our rewards to being faithful to our youth.

Also we prepared eleven articles for the “Volunteer Views,” and had wonderful cooperation with our District Superintendent, Sunday School promotional Secretary and our pastors.

In conclusion, let me say that it has been a joy to have served and I feel that the future is bright for the Tennessee Youth.

Respectfully submitted,

E. Ray Hotle.
