THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we ammend Section 106, Paragraph 2, as follows:

The delegates to the International Conference shall be selected as follows: two (2) ministerial delegates and one (1) lay delegate for each 500 members or major fraction thereof. Each district shall be entitled to at least two (2) ministerial delegates and one (1) lay delegate, in addition to the district superintendent.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we substitute the following for Section 106, Paragraph 3:

Each field superintendent in the Department of World Missions shall be a member of the International Conference by virtue of his office. Each field shall be entitled to one (1) ministerial delegate, these to be appointed by the World Missions secretary from the register of missionaries on furlough at the time of the International Conference (whether or not these represent one from each of the various fields).

The expenses involved in attending the International Conference of all department field superintendents and ministerial delegates shall be born by the Department of World Missions, with transportation at the equalized cost.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

PROCEEDINGS

MONDAY, JULY 12th, 1965

The thirty second conference of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, was held at the Cumberland Grove Camp Ground on July 12th, and opened at 8 A. M., with the singing of the song, "At The Cross," followed by prayer by Rev. H. P. Alexander. Rev L. E. Galyon, District Superintendent, introduced Rev. P. W. Thomas, General Superintendent and chairman of the conference.

Brother Thomas spoke of the remarkable changes of the day, such as customs, clothing, etc., but emphasized the fact that was needed for the day, that Christ and fundamental Christian standards and principles never change.

As conference convened, it was voted to make the two center aisles and the platform to compose the conference bar.

The time of the conference was set for 8 A. M. to 11:30, and 1 P. M. until the end of the conference.

The Secretary called the roll of ordained and licensed ministers. The roll call of delegates from churches was then given, with a few changes. The report of the District Superintendent, Rev. L. E. Galyon, was read and approved.

The report of the Assistant Superintendent, Rev. G. E. Vance, was read and accepted.

The report of the District Treasurer, Rev. S. E. Condon, was read and approved.

The report of the auditing committee was given by Mr. Elmer Braden, who reported books of the District Treasurer, the Youth Treasurer and the Camp meeting Treasurer, were examined and found correct.

The report of the District statistitian, Kenneth Manning, was given, but temporarily tabled to check on one or two items.

The report of the Promotional Secretary, Rev. C. L. Cook, given and accepted. Mrs. C. R. Rhoad, District Missionary President gave report and was accepted. It was moved to recess for ten minutes.

The report of the Educational and Examining Committee was given at this time and accepted, with the exception of three licensed ministers whose credentials were to be held until questionnaires were sent and received with satisfactory reports.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was held at this time and discussed with some changes taking place, then received by the conference.

It was moved and accepted to have the Memorial committee to report as the first order of service in the afternoon sitting. Conference adjourned for the dinner hour.

Afternoon Session

Conference reconvened at 1 P. M.

The Memorial committee took charge at the start of the afternoon sitting, and Mrs. R. D. Brown, a visitor at the camp and conference read feelingly the list of those who had taken their departure in the last year. As she read Mrs. Elmer Braden played softly at the organ and God was very close to us all. As Mrs. Brown finished the list, the conference starting singing, "In The Sweet By And By." The service closed with prayer by our District Superintendent, Rev. Galyon.

The Secretary read the list of approved evangelists which was accepted by the conference.

The reception committee at this time brought forward Rev. B. J. Watts, new pastor of our Monterey, Tenn. church, and Rev. Clyde Scott, a new member and licensed preacher of Lake City, Tenn., also Rev. R. D. Brown, evangelist in our church. They were all greeted by Rev. P. W. Thomas and made to feel welcome in our midst.

The Ways and Means Committee reported at this time and with some changes the report was accepted by the conference.

The General Conference Memorial Committee for our District reported at this time and the report was accepted by the conference.

The conference recessed for ten minutes at this time.

The educational and examining board at this time presented an addition to their list and conference granted Sammy J. Hicks, first year license.

The further report of statistician Kenneth Manning, was given at this time and accepted by the conference.

Next in order was the election of officers. (See Official Directory). As the conference drew to a close, Rev. Galyon called for a rising vote of thanks to our presiding General Superintendent, Rev. P. W. Thomas, which was given heartily.

Recognition and appreciation was expressed also to Mrs. Erline Pickering and Mrs. Ross Morgan, who typed much of the Proceedings of the conference.

Rev. Harold Barton was called on for the dismissal prayer and conference adjourned by singing the "Doxology."

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

1964-1965

General Superintendent P. W. Thomas, delegates and friends assembled at this, the 32nd annual conference of the Tennessee District, greetings in Jesus' name.

The greater part of my life has been affected by the Pilgrim Holiness Church. My first introduction to our church was in a little mission hall where, one day, as a teen-age boy, I walked through its doors, as a result of a Sunday School contest. Little did I know when I entered those doors that I had found the church that would lead me to know the redemptive powers of our Saviour, and into a second definite work of grace. Too, I met, that same day, the one who was to be my life long companion, and the church that would offer me an opportunity for Christian service—six years as a pastor, two years in the field of evangelism, and nine years as district superintendent here in Tennessee.

I have not deserved such honor as this church has bestowed upon me, and am unworthy of His manifold blessings. A former district superintendent of another state told me he felt that this was the lowest calling in the church. I am glad and happy in my heart to say that it has been a joy and a privilege to serve these nine years. I am trusting that God will provide leadership that will take us onward and upward, and I am confident He will.

Church Improvements

A report of this kind often includes such things as church improvements during the past conference year. An effort is made to show as nearly as possible the material improvements of our buildings. Perhaps the details are somewhat boring, and, with your permission, I would rather point out that: in the last ten years the equity held in property has risen from $96,028 to $308,164.28; if I have it correct, there are six new parsonages and nine new church buildings; and much improvement has been made on existing buildings. This reveals that our ministers and their families, and the good laymen, have made a conscientious effort to meet the challenge of our day. All of this has not been done in vain, for in 1962 and 1963 we showed a record attendance in Sunday School, with an average this year of 1,095 each Sunday.

District Church Extension

District church extension remains, it seems to me, one of the greatest needs. The record shows no appreciable increase in our giving for the purpose of extending our borders. Over a ten year period, we have averaged only $666.62 per year. Any progress made must be credited to the burden, sacrifice, and sincere efforts of those on the field. I recommend that we increase our efforts in this area and seek to find means to get the job done.

Perhaps I should tell you that the Rosebank Church in Nashville, a product of district church extension, organized only last year on May 13, has combined with a fine group in Madison (a section of greater Nashville). This provided a beautiful church building, conservatively valued at $20,000, and an opportunity to liquidate all indebtedness. God is blessing this group under the leadership of Rev. Frank Therber.

Other ministers, Rev. C. L. Cook at LaFollette, Rev. Eugene Hooper at Elizabethton, and Rev. H. P. Alexander at Oak Ridge, continue to serve in this field, and are to be commended for their efforts.

If possible, let us pray more than ever before that God will establish His work, open new doors, and give the courage needed to step in.

Personal Report

When I think of the many cities in Tennessee without a Pilgrim church, the hundreds of thousands of lost souls, and the problems the precious pastors face, along with the faithful laity, I am made to feel the smallness of my own personal activities. However, there is no excuse for slothfulness.

It has been my privilege to conduct nine revival meetings, both on and off the district. And, I was privileged to serve in our Canadian Camp, using my vacation time. I traveled approximately 23,500 miles in the interest of the district and in my evangelistic travels; presided over five council meetings; worked 15 days on the camp ground, including the preparations for Camp Meeting; made two trips to the churches; conducted all the annual meetings except two; and made two trips to assist in the combining of a fine group with our Rosebank Church in Nashville, as described earlier in this report. I attended the joint meeting of the church leaders and the general board; attended the two board meetings of Southern Pilgrim College; assisted in the preparations for the Ministerial Convention; and prepared the district page for the "Volunteer Views" each month.

It has been a pleasure to serve with my brothers and sisters in Christ across these years; and, whatever little may have been accomplished, much credit is due them. For the rest, to Him be all the glory.

With prayers and Christian love
I respectfully submit this report,
L. E. Galyon

DISTRICT MISSIONARY PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I am happy to bring to you a report of the activities of the Missionary Societies of the Tennessee District for the fiscal year 1964-65. The total amount of offerings received was $800.72, of which, $425.69 was sent to Foreign Missions, $8.60 to general church extension, $150.75 to district church extension, and $104.61 was used locally.

A goal was set last year to collect 30 books of trading stamps to be used toward the purchase of new automobiles for deputational and field work. It is a pleasure to report that this goal was exceeded by 8 books.

Our district project for the year was the payment of $120.00 for an adding machine for the Eastern South American Field Office. To date, $90.72 of this amount has been received, and the balance has been pledged.

It is evident that new interest was created through a workshop tour of the district, on the zone level, in October, 1964, by Sr. Ruth Meeks, Society director, and myself. Four workshops were held, with a total attendance of 209, and a total offering of $55.93, which was used for the expenses of the tour.

I am happy to report that a new Society was organized in the Nashville Rosebank church.

Several boxes containing awards, quilts, band women's uniforms, bandages, sewing supplies, and numerous other items were sent to the fields. Boxes of linens, Tupperware, etc., were sent to the linen closet in Indianapolis.

Items, such as cereal bowls, cups, pitchers, and cans of degreaser, were purchased for the Camp kitchen. Work was done by some Societies on their local churches, such as painting Sunday School rooms, etc. Contributions were made to needy families on the local church level.

Four Societies prepared a booth display at the district Camp. The Morristown display received first place award, and the West LaFollette display received second place award.

For the new year, we have set a goal of 40 books of trading stamps for the World Missions Department; and, we have chosen for our district project to purchase material and make drapes for the 50 windows in the girls' dormitory at the Chababoma Mission in Zambia, Africa. The amount requested for this project is $100.00.

I want to sincerely thank each one who contributed in any way toward the successes of the past year. With God's help, we are looking forward to greater accomplishments in the new year.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Chester Rhoad

PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

During the past year I compiled the Sunday School report for the "Volunteer Views", helped edit and publish the "Volunteer Views", prepared a paper for the ministerial meeting and tried to promote Sunday School work in our district.

I attended a promotional meeting in Atlanta, Ga. in the interest of youth and Sunday School.

Respectfully submitted,
C. L. Cook

"MEMORIALS"

"O, the friends that now are waiting in the cloudless realms of day,
Who are calling us to follow where their steps have led the way.
They have laid aside their armour and their earthly course is run—
They have kept the faith with patience and their crown of life is won.
We have labored here together; yes, we've labored side by side,
Just a little while before us they have crossed the rolling tide.
We shall see them, we shall know them, we shall hear their song of love,
And we'll all sing "Hallelujah! in our Father's House above."

Samuel Bradley, husband of Naomi Bradley, and member of the Clinton Pilgrim Holiness Church, departed this life September 3, 1964, at the age of 65. Brother Bradley went to be with Jesus on Thursday morning after having attended service in the local church just the night before. A Christian of more than thirty years, he was well known and loved over the entire district, and one felt he was a better person for having been with him. God bless his memory! To the wonderful wife, with whom he lived for more than thirty years, we offer our heartfelt prayers and sympathy, knowing our loss is Heaven's gain.

Sephe Whitaker of Monterey, Tenn., departed this life June 26, 1965. Although he was not a member of the local church, Brother Whitaker was most faithful in every way, for which he will surely be missed. Rev. Ben Watts, pastor of the Monterey Pilgrim Holiness Church officiated at his funeral.

J. L. Bettis of Chattanooga, husband of Thelma Bettis and step-father of Mrs. Ross Morgan, departed this life on November 6, 1964, leaving a good testimony. Both Mrs. Bettis and Mrs. Morgan are members of the Chattanooga Pilgrim Holiness Church.

Horace Canaster of Jamestown, Tenn., was killed instantly on the highway near his home on December 2, 1964. Brother Canaster was a faithful member of the Jamestown Pilgrim Holiness Church, and will be sadly missed.

Sarah Elizabeth Hicks, mother of Mrs. Elmer Braden of Jellico, Tenn., departed this life December 3, 1964, at the age of 93. Before her passing she quoted, "On Jordan's stormy banks I stand," "The Psalm of Life", "the 23rd Psalm" and a verse of the old song "Wait and Murmur Not". The one verse of this last song she quoted was: "Oh! Troubled heart there is a home beyond the reach of toil and care. A home where changes never come, who would not fain be resting there?" Her funeral was held at the Pleasant View, Ky., Methodist Church of which she was a member, with Rev. Paul Light, pastor of Jellico Pilgrim Holiness Church, officiating.

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

HALLELUJAH!!!!!!!!!!!!

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Elmer Braden
Mrs. J. D. Trimble
Mrs. Acil Turner

Special Resolutions

1. Note: The following resolution was presented in regards to the Supreme Court decision banning prayer in schools and was received by the District Conference. It was moved and passed that this resolution be sent to Tennessee and Georgia representatives in Washington, as well as to our own Tennessee churches for distribution:

The Tennessee Conference of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, in session July 12, 1965, is much concerned about the recent Supreme Court prayer ruling of June 25, 1963. We feel that this decision makes for secularism, though we are sure that the Supreme Court did not intend this result.

It is our conviction, furthermore, that this decision breaks further the spiritual bond between the Christian faith and our democracy. We, therefore, respectfully request you to give attention to remedial legislation which will preserve the rights of the majority to maintain our great and vital school traditions.

2. Be it resolved that in cooperation with the Superintendent of this area, that the church needs a widespread revival, and that each morning between the hours of six and nine, we take some time to pray for a revival, for the winning of souls, and for the calling of young men and women to the ministry. we heartily recommend that the Tennessee District join together in this great program of prayer. DISTRICT YOUTH PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To our District Superintendent, Delegates of this Youth conference, and my fellow pastors of the Tennessee District, greetings in the name of Jesus. I feel that this has been a very good year for the Youth of our fine District.

We have completed the second full year of our Youth camp, and it will be an experience that will never be forgotten in the minds of our youth, and I feel that many received spiritual help while they were at youth camp. We appreciate the fine co-operation that we had from both workers and the campers in this second Youth camp. In summing up as to a yearly report, we have assisted in the preparation of eleven Volunteer Views, conducted four Youth rallies on the District in the interest of the C. Y. C. (Christian Youth Crusade), I had charge of the afternoon service of the Ministerial meeting held at Clinton, Tenn.

During this year I have enjoyed wonderful fellowship with the District Superintendent and all the fine pastors and Youth Leaders with their youth of this District.

As this year has come to a close, we can look back at the past and thank the Lord for what has been done in the work of the Kingdom. We can also look at the present and rejoice over the opportunities that are ours, and we can look to the future with a greater hope for the Tennessee Youth of our District.

Again it has been a real joy to have served as Youth President of the Tennessee District this past conference year.

Respectfully submitted,
Samuel E. Condon,
Youth President.
