2. Whereas, this Convention recognizes the hospitality of the Milton Class in entertaining the Convention, be it therefore

Resolved, That we show our appreciation by a rising vote of thanks.

3. Whereas, the office of State Secretary is the most strenuous office connected with the State Work, requiring greater sacrifice, time, thought, and attention than any office, and

Whereas, the present Secretary, Sister Carrie A. Yoder, has held that office so faithfully and self-sacrificingly since the organization of the State Work, and

Whereas, she has never received, to the best of this Committee's knowledge, any remuneration for the same, be it therefore

Resolved, That this Convention pay her ten dollars out of the Treasury, not to repay, but to show our appreciation of her labors.

This resolution was adopted by a rising vote.

Licensed Preachers' and Evangelists' Reports

Conducted four revivals, preached one hundred and seventy sermons, about forty converts. Also conducted a number of prayer meetings and Bible readings.

J. B. DIEHL.

Conducted three revivals, preached fifty-two sermons, conducted fifty-four prayer meetings and forty-eight cottage meetings. There was one convert and five backsliders reclaimed.

J. P. MILLER.

Preached twelve sermons, sold about $450 worth of Holiness literature, led several prayer meetings and also a few street meetings.

J. H. MEASE.

Preached about thirty-five sermons and am now taking a Theological Course of study at God's Bible School in Cincinnati, O. There was one person saved and two sanctified.

CLAUDE HEIM.

Preached about twenty-one sermons. There were two converts.

IRVIN HEIM.

Preached two hundred and forty sermons, made two hundred pastoral calls, conducted four funerals, eight baptismal services, forty prayer meetings, eleven Bible readings, organized two churches, one at Reading and one at Philadelphia.

J. L. SUTTON.

Called and prayed in one hundred and fifty-two homes. Three souls were won for God, giving Him all the glory. Paid out of my own personal money nineteen dollars and fifty cents for supplies for the poor and needy.

MRS. MAGGIE McCLOSKEY.

Prayed about four hundred times with people in about three hundred and twenty homes. The Lord and I had sixteen street meetings, and I helped other workers in four more. Taught S. S. lessons twenty-two times and addressed S. S. sessions eleven times. Gave two missionary talks. Exhorted eight times in prayer meetings, gave twenty Gospel talks in school houses and other places, had seven seekers for either regeneration or sanctification. Helped in six revivals and three camp meetings, which resulted in about one hundred and ninety-two seekers for either regeneration or sanctification. Many of these testified that they obtained the experience which they were seeking for, but the number I do not know. Conducted under God five young people's meetings and thirty-six prayer meetings. Also spoke three times to the children in children's meetings and helped in or conducted thirty-nine praise meetings. Gave out full Gospel tracts and put quite a number of Holiness books into many homes. Obtained about two hundred Bethel Herald subscribers and some for other Holiness papers, such as God's Revivalist and The Apostolic Messenger. Was given a nice sum of money for Missionary and Colporteur work—about twenty dollars in all. Received enough support to keep me alive without asking for a cent. Had a place to sleep every night and plenty to eat, and got shouting happy many times. People would walk many miles through the mud to and from meetings and sing and laugh and never get the blues. This encouraged my spiritual make-up. Enjoy the Lord's work very much. Have a few good calls for tent meetings and many open needy fields to do good Gospel work; for the State is big. Am preparing to put in another year for the Lord Jesus Christ in the salvation of souls. My experience of salvation is perfectly satisfactory to me. Jesus is all right. His name be praised for everything. I am going with Him by His grace.

J. E. WOLFE.

Holiness Missionary and Colporteur in Pennsylvania.
