Martha Chancellor be received into the conference as an ordained preacher after answering the questions.

Wayne Minton be referred to his P. E.

The name of B. S. Cole be stricken from the conference roll.

WAYS AND MEANS.

I. We recommend inasmuch as tithing is Scriptural and according to our discipline, that each pastor preach, practice, and urge his members to tithe, and with pencil and paper, keep account with God, said money to be paid into the local church treasury.

II. Inasmuch as we have launched our own mite box plan for our missionary work and have our own missionaries to support, we recommend:

1st. That each pastor assist in launching the mite box plan by acting as secretary on his charge or appointing a secretary.

2nd. That the pastor report a minimum amount to be raised for foreign missionary work during the year.

III. That each member of the local church over 18 years, be assessed 50c as a membership fee. (Apportionment).

IV. That each member of the conference pay into the conference treasury at least  $\frac{1}{4}$  of his or her tithe, said tithe to be used as an extension fund.

V. That the minimum amount of $500 on the Northern District and $600 on the Southern District be given our Presiding Elders. said money to be raised by apportioning the local class according to its ability and to be paid in equal quarterly amounts. In case the above amounts are not raised on the districts, the conference will make up the deficiency.

VI. A rousing free will offering be taken the first Sunday morning of the camp meeting for the general superintendent.

VII. Inasmuch as the support of many of our pastors in the past has not been sufficient, that the P. E. see that each class promise a minimum amount to be paid weekly, monthly, or quarterly, and that we use the envelope system.

VIII. That each pastor and evangelist act as agent for the "Voice From Canaan," take new subscriptions, secure renewals, and inform the editor of those who wish the paper discontinued.

IX. That each class give at the rate of one cent a week each member for the publication of "Voice From Canaan."

X. If any church give the elder an extra call they must pay his expenses and give proper remuneration.

XI. In organizing a mission, the pastor, or evangelist, appoint a superintendent. The latter to keep the names of all members and see that the pastor and P. E. be paid.

XII. The conference pay the traveling expenses of the presiding elders.

XIII. That each pastor be an agent for the Burial Association.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

We, the auditing committee, have examined the reports of the Foreign Missionary treasurer, and Beulah Rescue Home, and find them correct.

W. G. Bogue, P. E.'s traveling expenses we find a mistake of 3 cents on the second round. Balance due to him of $10.70.

W. S. Bogue P. E.'s salary due $500, received $473.65; balance due $26.35.

Washington Sherman, Asst. P. E.'s salary, due $600, received $546.67. Balance due $53.33.

We find the treasurer's book correct.

The Holiness Christian Burial Association received $85.50, paid out $15.00; balance in treasury $70.50.

RESOLUTION COMMITTEE.

I.

Inasmuch as death has again invaded our ranks and called from labor to reward our dear co-laborer Bro. Julian,

Therefore, be it resolved, That we as a conference express to Sister Julian our heartfelt sympathy by addressing to her a letter of condolence and a suitable memoir be inserted in the conference minutes.

II.

"Grateful to Almighty God for the rising tide of public sentiment which is sweeping toward national and world-wide prohibition of the liquor traffic, rejoicing at the rapidly changing tone of the public press, the closing of its columns to liquor advertisements, the emphatic pronouncements of medical science, the entrance into the prohibition ranks of the manufacturing and business interests of the nation, and the increasing recognition by the industrial classes of alcohol's menace to the workers' safety and welfare; we denounce the traffic as a grave and imminent national peril.

"It is the one most prolific cause of insanity, crime and poverty; the most insidious despoiler of legitimate business; the most corrupt and demoralizing influence in politics, and the most dangerous enemy to human welfare in all our civic life.

"Statesmanship, ecclesiastical and civil, has denounced it; science has condemned it; business is arraying itself against it; politics is struggling to be freed from its grasp; labor seeks to escape from its degrading, merciless bondage, and the embattled nations of half a world find it a more deadly foe than any they have met on war's red fields.

"The expansion of religion and the preservation of civilization require its overthrow—its complete and utter annihilation.

"To the consummation of this high achievement we do now and here solemnly covenant with each other and with God, our Father, and pledge ourselves to fight and spare not until the end shall have been attained."

III.

Inasmuch as the reform movements relative to the liquor traffic and social reform are taking the time and talent of the church and whereas there is a failure on the part of the church in bearing the burden of souls.

Therefore, be it resolved that our brethren be careful to be not entangled in the reform movements to the sacrifice of the soul agonies that should characterize the people of God."

IV.

Inasmuch as God has so graciously blest our camp meeting and conference,

Be it resolved that we express our gratitude to Almighty God by rising and singing the doxology.

V.

Inasmuch as God has used Bro. Whitcomb in the ministry of the Word to our hearts and we feel that we shall be stronger in faith for his service among us, and, Whereas the hand of affliction is upon him, Therefore be it resolved that we express our appreciation of his service by a rising vote and thereby pledge our prayers for his speedy recovery and continued usefulness in the ministry.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN H. JULIAN passed away to be with Jesus, October 6, 1915, at his home in Elwood, Ind., aged 64 years and 3 months, having been born in July, 1851.

Brother Julian was a good Christian at the time he joined the Elwood class in 1906. His life from then on proved him to be a consistent follower of Jesus, always active in the Master's service, commanding the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. He served his time as a local preacher, and, in 1908, on the recommendation of his class, was admitted into the Indiana annual conference, as an Itinerant preacher.

Continuing to be faithful and zealous, conference, in 1909, selected him as their Home Missionary, ordained him the following year, and in 1913 elected him to its highest office, viz, that of Presiding Elder; the Northern District being the one he labored in. He served in this position one year, his health not permitting him to continue longer.

Brother Julian was a successful evangelist, a faithful holiness advocate, and a firm believer in divine healing. He was a humble man, sweet spirited, went about doing good, and won many friends.

A good evidence of his Christian character and the influence of his godly life was the large concourse of people, fully 1800, who attended his funeral to pay their last tribute of love and respect. It took place in the large Union Meeting Tabernacle at Elwood. The discourse was preached by W. G. Bogue, P. E., from Daniel 12:3. He was assisted by Elders J. W. Clark, J. W. Trout, A. M. Ewing, Ed. Schoeff, and others. The pastors of the different city churches acted as pall bearers.

A beloved and faithful widow, Sarah Julian, and the son, Edgar Julian, survive him. May the Comforter console the bereft.

Those who were at the 1915 conference will never forget his farewell to them: "Brethren, good-bye, if we never meet here again, we will meet just inside the Eastern Gate."

He was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Elwood, Ind. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."
