RESOLUTIONS AS FOLLOWS:

(1)

Whereas, we would not forget to thank and praise God, for the good Camp Meeting that has just gone into the history of the church, the record of which will appear at the Judgment Bar of God; thanking Him for all of its attendant blessings, for every soul that found peace with the Lord; yet, recognizing as our especial need in Indiana

Mrs. R. W. Chatfield,
District Treasurer

a greater measure of Divine love that causes the graces of His Spirit to flow out through our hearts and minds, humility, kindness, tender-heartedness, a spirit of forgiving one another, and the Glory that crowns the mercy seat when we pray. Therefore, be it resolved, that we have a special season of prayer at this time for an increase of Divine love, and that the graces of His Spirit may adorn our lives; that the church will plead in mighty prevailing prayer for this glory, and a Holy Ghost revival.

Jesus hath said, "Hitherto, have ye asked nothing. Ask that your joys be full."

Whereas, God hath honored the work of our loved and esteemed District Superintendent, Rev. A. M. Ewing, whose labor of love for the Lord in helping to establish the Camp Ground and the Frankfort Pilgrim College, will not be easily forgotten. Therefore, be it resolved, that we pledge to him our Christian love and much prayer for the ensuing year.

(3)

Whereas, that our Heavenly Father, from his bountiful hand, hath launched forth into our midst, the Frankfort Pilgrim College and Theological Seminary, a blessing which is more than we could scarcely think or ask, for which our hearts are thankful;

Whereas, we would recognize this duty devolving upon us, i. e., the fundamental responsibility and burden of the religious training of the young people of our churches is laid at the door of this school; recognizing also that the Bible Schools of the Church in general are one of her greatest strategic points in maintaining the work of God; inasmuch as sons and daughters trained in them, will be leaders of the next generation; they need Bible training that will make them religious, strong, courageous and self-reliant leaders; so strong that they will inspire loyalty to Jesus Christ as the Saviour of this world; students who will hold allegiance, be courageous to meet and solve new problems in a changing world;

Whereas, it has been said "If Christianity is the hope of the world and it is; if the church of Jesus Christ is the divinely appointed agency for the extension of Christianity—and it is; if the Bible School is the recruiting station forts by making this a special year in Young Peoples' work of the church, a year of campaigning for Jesus Christ, by God's help as never before we would marshal our forces to arouse enthusiasm in saving lost humanity, cry out that all may become good soldiers of the Cross and followers of the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. That we encourage as a vantage ground of truth, a more extensive study of the Word of God, strengthen our prayer life as never before; and take as a slogan for work, "The Evangelization of this world in our generation."

Whereas, there is a present need for advance steps to be taken along the line of Sunday School work; we believe that no community in which the Sunday School is neglected is as prosperous as it would be otherwise. There is no more significant and a more Christian emphasizing and Christian character forming agency than the Sabbath School from its permanent prosperity will go roots into a soil of moral and spiritual interest.

Whereas, believing that we should have a closer identification of our Sunday Schools with our current church life and its economies. We say with sadness that the dry rot of spiritlessness has been caused not only by a mania for the world, but a neglect of the education of the children through the Sunday School.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we take some advance steps for the betterment of the Sunday Schools throughout Indiana during this Assembly year, that we will aid this line of the work more by our prayers and united efforts, and at some appointed time of the church year we have a Sunday School convention for the promotion of the work, seeking to increase the membership of the Sunday Schools, to encourage the organization of mission Sabbath Schools, to promote the extension of the Home Study department for the old and sick; and in so doing we would seek to raise the standard of Christian education of Sabbath Schools along lines of Christian doctrine and to increase the efficiency of work done thus by adopting for the schools, some good catechism, preferably that used by the Free Methodist Church Schools or the one lately compiled and edited by Rev. Chapman of the Nazarene Church, until we have a publication of our own.

Whereas, it has been wisely admitted by some unknown writer that the value of the contribution of women to the mission fields can scarcely be estimated, because of their sacrificing service, their close contact with the local churches, their network of meetings and conventions, their distribution of missionary literature, and their untiring efforts for finance, education, expansion, etc.

Whereas, we feel that an organization of the women of

of the church of Jesus Christ—and it is; then Bible Schools are the hope of this world."

Therefore, be it resolved, we express our deep appreciation of the Frankfort Pilgrim College and Theological Seminary by making it a daily subject of our prayers by putting forth united effort by appointing throughout the Indiana churches in the coming year, a service set aside for promotion of its interest, make an especial effort to obtain as many new students as possible, and welcome this new institution of the church into our midst.

God bless the Frankfort Pilgrim College and Theological Seminary.

Whereas, desiring to build up the Young People of the church in Christian character, and to instruct them in its doctrines, and for the further evangelization of other Young People, we have an organization known as the Pilgrim Holiness Young Peoples' Society.

Whereas, recognizing the fact that our young people need an open mind because in a few years, they must be the burden bearers of the church and since they can get preparation for this great service only by practical training for Christian service.

Be it resolved, that we unite our prayers, and our ef-the Pilgrim Holiness Church throughout Indiana under proper direction, and by God's help, would further spread even to foreign lands.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we have an organization known as a "Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Society," wherein we pledge to pray as never before, for missions, both home and abroad, to believe, to give, to en-

Whereas, the Word of God hath declared that our young men for war, our older men for counsel, that in the selection of an officer, Paul encouraged not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the Devil.

Whereas, there seems to be a tendency among many of the churches of the land to place the work of the Lord in the hands of the young, thereby discarding the advice and counsel of many more elderly people whose wise counsel has guided us through many a hard place;

Be it resolved, that we use prayer and wisdom, as laid down in the Bible, in the selection of delegates, chosen either to our annual or general assemblies. We would see to it that our local churches send delegates to the Assembly who are mature in Christian experience and have been members of the church long enough to become acquainted with its teachings and practices.

Whereas, the food served in the dining hall has been highly appreciated and much complimented by the people,

Be it resolved, that a rising vote of thanks be given to the cooks and all workers.

Whereas, we are living in days when the shadows of the great tribulation seems to be gathering, lengthening upon the earth, and the perils of the Church are many. There is an impending danger, a crisis facing the church in general along the line of worldliness, and particularly in women's dress.

Whereas, character that is to be in womanhood must be instilled in childhood and conserved in girlhood.

courage others to do the same, and that we will make an especial study of fields upon which the missions of the church are located, new ones open for evangelization, and to arrange for missionary conventions to be held in our local churches.

Whereas, sin is abounding, and increasing, on every hand, we as a Church deplore the present crisis with regard to the status of marriage and its sanctity, and that one of the most menacing evils of this sacred institution is the increasing tendencies toward divorce. ("Present day court records bear testimony that about one marriage out of every six ends in the divorce courts. Divorce in itself is but a principle that will abolish marriage, adopt a system of Free-lovism, and break down the sanctity of the home.")

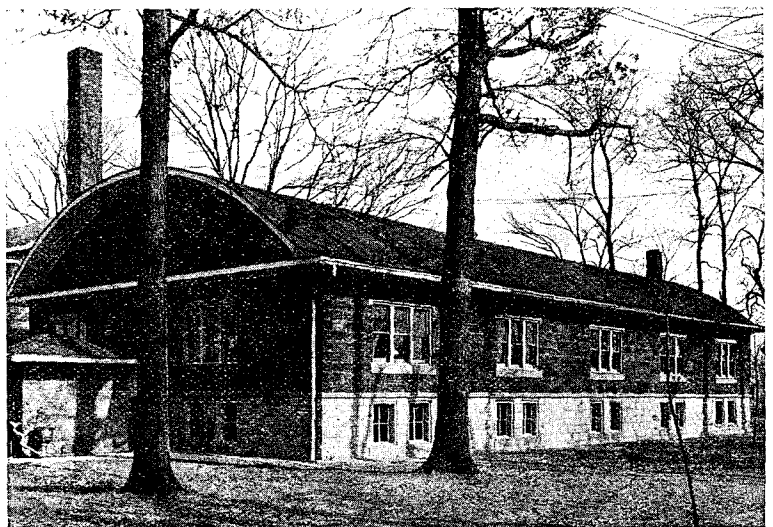

Whereas, as for present day companionate marriage, we know that we are safe in saying that we are not ignorant of this device of satan and we would like to ask "What is companionate marriage other than trial marriage dressed up in a 1928 suit of clothes?"

Therefore, be it resolved, that we recognize only one cause for divorce. Matt. 19:3-6. We voice our sentiments against companionate marriage in the words of Billy Sunday, "Companionate marriage is barnyard marriage." We would not expect any lawmaking body of men in possession of their faculties, to commit political suicide, nor to endorse the same. We still hold that marriage is the normal, and divorce the abnormal. In this fact lies the fallacy of such a proposal as companionate marriage.

Be it further resolved, that we call our Church to much united prayer and to put forth every effort to break down this present day evil.

College Dormitory

College Library and Dining Room

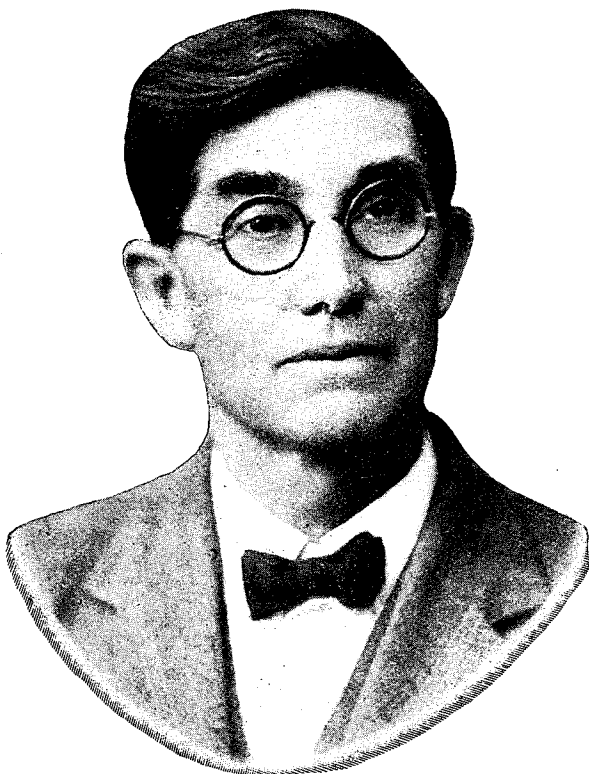

Therefore, be it resolved, we forever take our stand against, and denounce many of the present day styles of women's dress erroneous, wicked and sinful. We will not endanger innocent purity by adopting many of these styles. We believe that personal adornment for the most part is foolish. Women and girls do not need rings, bracelets, tinkling symbols to make them attractive, neither do they need to follow the foolish practice of this vain world by bobbing their hair, wearing sleeveless dresses, short skirts, or apparel that is not becoming to women professing godliness. The soul is the beautiful garment of adornment, and when women have put on Christ, the robe of righteousness, the personality is illuminated with a beauty not of this world. That we, the women of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, who have the Bible for a rule in dress other things being equal, are saved, sanctified and satisfied in being one of the King's daughters. Praise the Lord.

Whereas, God in his great wisdom, called from his labors the Superintendent of Ohio, our sister district, Rev. J. V. Coleman;

Be it resolved, that we express our sympathy by standing with bowed heads for one minute, and that our district secretary be instructed to express the sympathy of this Assembly to the remaining members of his family.

Rev. C. G. Taylor, College President

Whereas, we have again had the privilege of the services of Edward N. Thacker of the Morning Times, who has so faithfully represented us in past assemblies, and, whereas the management of this excellent paper has so graciously afforded us a prominent space in their columns;

Be it resolved, that our District Superintendent express the unanimous appreciation of the assembly to the management of this publication.

Whereas, there seems to be insidiously stealing over our nation, an undercurrent of disregard for the Volstead amendment to our constitution, and;

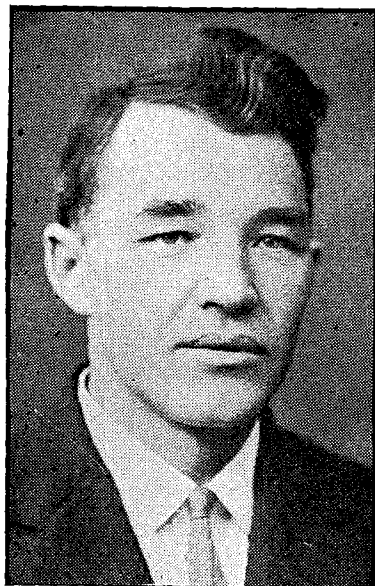

Whereas, only a rigid enforcement of all our prohibition laws will discourage this condition;

Be it resolved, that the Indiana District Assembly go on record as opposing any political platform or nominee that by principle or inference, favors the wet issue.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom and mercy hath seen fit to remove from our midst by the hand of death, a number of our laymen, during the assembly year;

Whereas, Reverends C. A. Fouts, Orth McCune and Sister Lucinda Rhoades, were each members of the Assembly, and each of whom has shown efficiency, devotion and earnest co-operation in all things pertaining to the development and promotion of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, and the work of the kingdom of God upon this earth,

Rev. R. W. Chatfield,
District Evangelist

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, the members of this Assembly, deeply mourn our loss and tender our sympathy to the loved ones.

Be it further resolved, that a special time be set during this session of the Indiana Assembly, that a memorial service be held.

Whereas, there is a tendency of times toward a decline of spiritual things; and upon our Camp Ground, and during Camp, there is feasting instead of fasting, too much visiting, not enough prayer, ease and worldliness until Camp has the appearance of a Fair Grounds,

Be it resolved, that during the services, the lunch stand be closed as far as possible, and that our boys and girls be brought into the tabernacle to attend service.

Be it resolved, that no person or persons be accepted as members of the Shoemaker Memorial Home from other states unless provisions for their keep and care be provided satisfactory to the executive board of said Memorial Home.

Whereas, it has been the practice of some individuals to leave one local Pilgrim Holiness Church and go to a nearby Pilgrim Holiness local church and join there without the formality of a church letter,

Be it resolved, that any pastor receiving into his local any such member or members shall be deemed guilty of pastoral negligence. For this action he may be reported to the District Council and if they (the State Council) so determine, shall be referred to the examining board.

REPORT OF THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT

I am glad for the little part, under God, that we have been permitted to fill with our brothers and sisters in the ministry. I am so sorry that more has not been accomplished for Jesus, but thank Him for what has been done. May we unite in this year for a greater victory than our Church has ever known.

At present, we have 97 churches reported in the Assembly, seven of which are not functioning, leaving 90 actually active and alive, to which will be added the four new churches coming in. I have held 139 services. I kept no account of the converts, leaving that for the churches to report. Funerals preached and assisted in, 3. Four pastors resigned during the year, whose places were filled.

We also engaged in a financial campaign in the interest of the College at Frankfort, in which nearly $9,000.00 cash was raised on the indebtedness, among the business men of Frankfort. Nearly $12,000.00 cash for the College and Home was raised this year. We assisted in one campaign in Shelbyville, which we believe was greatly owned and blessed of God, and will bear fruit in the near future.

We are now engaging ourself with the cares and problems before us for the new year, and trust that we may have the hearty co-operation of the Saints throughout the whole entire District, that God may make it the greatest of all our lives.

Yours faithfully submitted.

REV. A. M. EWING, State Superintendent.

1929 Camp

The Frankfort Pilgrim

Holiness Camp Meeting

Will Be Held

August 9 to 18 Inclusive

Rev. David E. Wilson of Binghamton, N. Y., Rev. Walter Surbrook of Kingswood, Ky., Evangelists. Prof. C. D. Jester of Marion, Ind., Song Leader. Conference August 19 to 22, Inclusive.

Concerning the Pilgrim Holiness Camp Meeting to be held at Frankfort, Indiana, August 9th to 18th, 1929, inclusive; we wish to give you some outstanding features of Frankfort, Indiana, as well as the Camp Meeting itself.

Frankfort is the county seat of Clinton County, and is a town of approximately 14,000; situated forty-eight (48) miles north and west of Indianapolis. It is known as "The Gem City of Indiana." It is beautifully platted and nicely cared for. It is a friendly city. A welcome awaits you.

You can reach Frankfort at any time of day or night. Two (2) divisions of the Pennsylvania Railroad pass through it; also two (2) divisions of the Nickel Plate Road; the Monon Route from Chicago to Indianapolis; two (2) Traction Lines, Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern from Lafayette to Indianapolis; and the Indiana Railway and Power Company from Marion to Frankfort.

The Pilgrim Holiness Camp Ground is located in the southwest section of Frankfort; well known; anyone can direct you to this Great Camp Ground where every year Saints from all over the United States gather for ten days of a great Spiritual feast.

A tract of thirty-five (35) acres of land is owned and used by the Pilgrims in Frankfort. The Old Peoples' Home is here; The Pilgrim College, with all its advantages is located on the Camp Ground. Six acres of Camp Ground is used as a Campus for the school during the school year. Plenty of good shade, good water, a Spiritual atmosphere, good accommodations.

Rooms $5.00 and $6.00 for the entire Camp. Tents $3.00 and $5.00 for all of the Camp. Meals twenty-five (25) cents each or $7.00 for the entire 10 days. A splendid lunch room where you can buy lunch as you may want it. Baggage service to and from depots. TO COME ONCE IS TO COME AGAIN.

For reservation of rooms or tents, write Rev. Ray Smtih, 815 N. 11th St., Richmond, Ind.

Let us pray together for a great Camp Meeting. Plan to come prayed up, looking up, and believing God for a great Spiritual Awakening.

All for Him,

REV. D. E. SNOW, Secretary,
123 W. 24th St., Anderson.
