HISTORY OF THE KENTUCKY DISTRICT, PILGRIM HOLINESS CHURCH, 1909-1959

"In the beginning God." Genesis 1:1. "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined." Psalm 50:2. Surely God "shined" on the fair state of Kentucky, when fifty years ago a Holiness denomination was organized therein.

Back of the beginning, or what we know as a beginning, of any spiritual movement, there is and always has been, the Hand of God working out His purpose. To look back over the past and trace these events is a source of awe and inspiration to our hearts. The Bible story of Abraham being led out to become the father of Israel's mighty nation, is one of these pictures. Then a glance at one of the beginnings of the Salvation Army—there is the story of Charles G. Finney praying with a great burden for the lost; finally after a day of prayer, assurance came that God would carry on the work. He went to New York, published "Revival Kindlings," many hearts were stirred by reading it. Eventually the book fell into the hands of Mrs. Evangeline Booth, she was so mightily stirred that the Salvation Army, at least in part, has resulted from that.

Back of our beginnings as a district—who prayed? I have heard that many, many years ago there was a Godly woman who prayed, her head covered with a shawl. Some of her posterity were leaders in the beginning of the organization in Kentucky. Did her prayers have a part? I believe they did.

Then, before a Pilgrim Holiness church in Kentucky was even thought of, God spoke to a preacher, a missionary in Africa, and made it plain to him that he should go back to his home community in Kentucky for a revival. That man was W. W. Hanks. He obeyed God. A revival broke out, John and Bona Fleming and others of the first Holiness preachers in Kentucky were saved and sanctified, went out to spread holy fire. Camp meetings followed, with workers from God's Bible School, where a few years before, M. W. Knapp had launched what is now known as the Pilgrim Holiness Church, and soon the Kentucky District was in the making.

Today, at the 1959 Camp, we are commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the Kentucky District Pilgrim Holiness Church. We are unable to give many details of the organization but we do know that Rev. W. W. Hanks was appointed the first district superintendent by Rev. George B. Kulp. The first churches to be started were Willard, Ashland First, Rush and Maysville. Fairview or Ashland Second also had its beginning as early as 1908, in a schoolhouse revival and cottage services. From a 1910 Manual of the International Apostolic Holiness Union (our church name at that time) we find the following ordained ministers listed as from Kentucky: R. B. Connelly, Smokey Valley; W. B. Dunkum, Kingswood; Beatrice and Nannie Finney, Kavanaugh; John and Bona Fleming, Willard; Wm. Godbey, Perryville; W. W. and Sallie Hanks, Ashland; L. W. Hollingsworth, Wilmore; Chas. H. Saunders, Catlettsburg; E. L. Sanford, Olive Hill; Jonah L. Shelton, Jacksboro; Allen Wells, Olive Hill. Ten licensed ministers: Thomas Bishop, Newport; Lewis Brown, Kingswood; William Deal, Ashland; E. C. Garrison, Covington; John Maddox, Newcombe; R. and Sarah Saunders, Newport; May and Madge Savage, Anglin; Wm. Wilcox, Rosedale. Evidently this was the Ministerial Directory in 1910, the year after organization. May and Madge Savage are also listed as deaconesses. The superintendents for the fifty year period are as follows: W. W. Hanks, Bona Fleming, Warren

Posey, R. W. Chatfield, William Duncan, William Beirnes, J. T. Johnson, Raymond Simpson, R. W. Wolfe, E. E. Leadingham, L. S. Houston, Ralph Tromble. Five of these are deceased.

Some of the earlier conferences were held at Ashland, Covington and Maysville. In October 1923, one was held at Soldier. This was the fourteenth annual conference when Rev. J. T. Johnson was elected to the superintendency, succeeding Rev. Wm. Beirnes. We quote a few statements from a report made by the General Superintendent of Foreign Missions: "It seemed to me there was more business transacted in the few pleasant days at Soldier, in face of the fact that we never knew when a motion would be passed to have a song from some of the song evangelists. Time was taken for worship. In fact, it was like a revival in Ezra's time every time the Assembly went to her knees. It seemed like everyone made a bee line for God's heart. No time was wasted in getting started. At times the praying, singing, shouting and jumping made the more timid feel a bit like hunting a safe place; however, no one was even bumped or scratched that we knew of, but surely fire flew, and joy both speakable and unspeakable, filled the place." In the report of the district superintendent, at this conference, he mentions a new church organized by Rev. John McNurlin at Bells Trace, near Rush; also two missions, one at Carrollton, the other started with $100.00 of the district funds, at Louisville.

For a few years the Kentucky District was favored by having the General Church Headquarters at Kingswood, Ky., with a college, foreign missionary office, orphanage, etc. This brought many of our general church leaders into the district. One of these, our Bro. Stikeleather, is still an active and much appreciated member of this district. For some years the camp and conference convened at Kingswood, and it could be designated as the first Camp ground. The second was at Aspen Grove, and the third, our lovely Camp ground here, at Springdale.

Attention is now called to a journal entitled The Kentucky Pilgrim's Progress. This was an enlargement of the Minutes of the 1927 or eighteenth conference edited by Rev. J. T. Johnson and Rev. J. O. Keller. It lists about one hundred and twenty in attendance at the conference at Kingswood, gives a more complete directory, tabulated reports, pictures and write-ups of properties recently acquired. A total of five parsonages were then in the district, so we grew.

It should be mentioned that for a period of time, when the Tennessee work was begun, the Kentucky and Tennessee Pilgrims functioned together as a district until 1933 when the Tennessee district was organized separately.

The full history of the prayer, toil, sacrifice and devotion that has gone into the making of our district what it is today, cannot be written here, but God has the record and in that great day to come, all will be rewarded as their work has been.

Kentucky District, in the past, has been especially noted for hewing to the "old paths," and for fiery, fervent, old-fashioned preachers (may we always be worthy of such a reputation). The future lies before us. If Jesus tarries, we too, will be making history as those gone before us have done. It will be what we make it, under God. Let us write carefully and well, that those who follow will not miss the way, but may follow us as we follow Christ.

—JENNY V. VINCENT

DISTRICT YOUTH PRESIDENT'S REPORT

At the close of another Conference year, I praise God for His presence and help. Anything that has been accomplished is due to Him.

In the office of District Youth President, I have traveled 1136 miles.

I attended the Youth Leader's Conference at Indianapolis, for a time of fellowship with our General youth officers, and other district presidents, where plans were made for youth week and other youth activities.

Our vice president, James Buckles, and myself conducted zone rallies in behalf of our general, district and local youth work. I visited the Mountain, Ashland and Covington zones; Bro. Buckles visited the Lexington, Louisville, and Western zones. The Olive Hill zone was not visited because of conflicting dates. The best representation was in the Mountain zone where four of the five churches were represented and all youth presidents were present.

Just a word in regard to our youth societies. According to reports received, very few have re-organized according to the new manual regulations. We trust others will do so and notify your district youth president.

The National Pilgrim Youth Quiz Contest was enthusiastically received in the beginning, but for some reason was not carried on that way. There was very little competition on the zone level and will be little on the district level.

The youth camp picture is bright. We watched the registration rise to an all time high of 164. There were 21 churches represented. There were two youths here from other states. Covington won the attendance trophy with 23 present; Frankfort was "runner up" with 17 present. With only 21 churches represented and over 50 churches in our district, the ceiling is unlimited. Generally speaking, the young folk were well behaved and cooperative. Our fine staff of 31 persons including teachers, assistants, evangelist, counsellors and cooks, performed their duties in an excellent manner and cooperated to the fullest extent.

Our hearts were warmed as we watched the young folk in the dining room, at work, on the playground, in their classes, meeting with their counsellors, and gathered here in the tabernacle, singing, praying, giving, testifying, listening to the inspired messages, praying and rejoicing around the altar.

The outstanding growth is presenting problems, but we feel like saying with the Apostle Paul, "We are perplexed but not in despair." Let's say with the Psalmist, "I will lift up my eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth." Let's face our problems, and pray for divine guidance in working them out, so that Kentucky Youth may continue to go "FORWARD WITH CHRIST."

Yours for Kentucky Youth,

PAUL EBRIGHT

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT, 1959

To our General Superintendent and members of this Conference Greetings:

This is our Golden Jubilee as a district and we want to give God praise and glory for what He has done. Through these past years God has been the one who has been leading His people. From a small beginning He has brought us to where we are today. Let us give honor to those who stood in the front lines of the battle when the way was rough. It has not been easy. We are here today through sweat and tears. Some of our comrades have fallen in the battle. They went down wielding the sword. Through many dangers, toils and cares we have come. Let us remember that when a soldier falls in this fight for right, when he is cut down by the sickle of the Great Reaper, he does not fall down, he goes up. Think of the Home Missionary projects; in fact, our best churches today were one time missions. God caused them to prosper and today there is a nice congregation and church to show for the effort that was put into the work. I wish to give due and proper recognition to each of the District Superintendents that have been before me in this great district of Kentucky. God has given some fine Christian men on the district council, and some good laymen in our churches.

During the years that your present Superintendent has been your leader, God has given us some lovely church buildings, and also some nice parsonages. We give God the praise for each of these, but when we see the field that is before us, and drive through so many places where there is no Pilgrim church our heart cries out to God that He would help us to reach more. The church may be facing hard days, but I believe by the help of the Lord we have a right to expect victory. I cannot believe that God wants us to be defeated. He said "My grace is sufficient."

I appreciate the members of my Council and their loyal support; then, too, I thank God for the fine group of pastors God has given us. We have some of the finest pastors in our movement. May God help us all to be men with a vision. I like to think what God could do if He had men to stand in the gap with a burden for lost men on their hearts.

I have tried to be faithful in taking care of the work of the Lord in this His vineyard, I have tried to keep first the things of the Kingdom, and to have the interests of my pastors at heart, and to help them with their burdens and problems. There have been many lonely hours, but the Saviour has been with us. My chief desire is that the time He may permit me to live that we should live to honor Him. Let us each look forward to victory with Him.

The following report will show some of the material progress that our churches have made:

Furthermore, we recommend: That those who purchased lots prior to this date be contacted by the District Superintendent urging them to build a cabin within two years or give the District the privilege of reselling their lot.

This amount is to be sent to the District Treasurer in a lump sum each month as United Stewardship Fund.

15. We recommend: That each pastor and church board make plans immediately for raising their portion of the United Stewardship Fund for the year. We further recommend: That inasmuch as in the division of the United Stewardship Fund 20% goes to Foreign Missions and 14% to Church Extension that we instruct our District Treasurer to take from money sent to him for Foreign Missions and Church Extension, but not specified for any special project, an amount not to exceed the above percentages and apply it on the United Stewardship Fund for our District.

This to be sent monthly to the District Treasurer. All members of the Pension Fund Plan should pay 2% of salary and offering as reported to the Conference.

23. We recommend: That each Sunday School set aside one Sunday each month and 50% of said Sunday's offering be given for District Home Missions.

Be it further resolved: That when the local church treasurer's reports are made to the local church, that the bank statements be made available and balance be shown to check with the treasurer's record.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Annual Conference of this district that the District Council, District Trustees, and all District Officials be, and they are hereby authorizing, to do and perform any and all acts required of them in the consummation of authorized loans to local Pilgrim Holiness churches of this district, subject, however, to limitations and conditions set out in said Resolutions of the General Board of the Pilgrim Holiness Church authorizing said loan.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY

To the 50th Annual Conference of the Kentucky District:

With this report we bring to a close our labors for the year as your Sunday School Promotional Secretary. This has been a good year for our Sunday Schools in the Kentucky District. I would like to commend all the pastors that have shown excellent cooperation in getting their reports in. To some of our schools this has been a good year in Sunday School work, due to a greater vision of men, women, boys and girls that are perishing in sin. To others it has been a year of loss, but it should be a greater determining factor to work harder this coming year.

A final report for the year reveals that against the record of last year we have a gain for this year of 154 or 5%. For this year we have a total 2963 average attendance with last year reported at 2809. We have 17 schools showing a loss for the year, 25 schools show a gain, 1 school the same, 1 new school.

As to the reports of the various schools, we have 23 schools reporting fully, 11 reporting eleven times, 6 reporting 10 times, 2 reporting 9 times, 6 reporting less than 9 times, 2 that failed to report.

The conference award for this year will go to the Carlisle church, pastor, Rev. Curtis Underwood, with the largest numerical gain, a gain of 23. The Cynthiana church, pastor, Rev. Cora Collins, is awarded the percentage gain, with a gain of 72%.

The churches that have a 10% gain or better for this Conference year are: Lexington 14%, Livermore 38%, Louisville 27%, Pleasureville 52%, Shelbyville 21%, Soldier 27%, Willard 21%, Winchester 12%, Aspen Grove 58%, Carlisle 34%, Carrollton 17%, Central City 53%, Clay 16%, and Eastview 13%.

It has been a pleasure to serve you for this year. Your cooperation has been deeply appreciated. The new year is bright with the prospects for the Kentucky Sunday Schools. Let's join together to make sure that Kentucky Sunday Schools continue to go forward.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. BUCKLES
