MEMORIAL

To the Memory

of the

Reverend L. S. Houston District Superintendent 1939 - 1954

> This Issue of the District Minutes Is Dedicated

Lawrence S. Houston was born January 8, 1895, and departed this life June 21, 1964.

Words can hardly convey the tribute we would like to pay to the memory of this man of God.

Over thirty-one years of his life were poured out in service to the Pilgrim Holiness Church in the Kentucky District. Sixteen and one-half years he pastored, and fifteen years he served as District Superintendent. He was used of God to start several of our larger churches. When he was elected Superintendent, our present camp ground was one year old and had only the tabernacle, the dining room, and five cottages.

Living for God and others summarized his whole Christian life. Many of his converts he helped to establish by going with them to make restitution, some of them for serious offences. God always brought them out victorious. One of his converts has been one of our fine pastors and a member of the district council for several years. Many are on the way to Heaven because he would not give them up, holding to them with one hand and to God with the other, until they were able to walk on with God alone.

Patience, tenderness, humility, and endurance characterized his whole life and demeanor. Because it was within, he was able to demonstrate divine love according to I Corinthians, chapter thirteen. His example was such as to make us want to follow him as he followed Christ.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." "They rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

In Essentials, UNITY In Non-Essentials, LIBERTY In All Things, CHARITY

CONFERENCE MINUTES

FIRST SITTING

The Fifty-fifth Annual Conference of the Kentucky District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church convened July 30, 1964 at 9:00 A. M. The meeting was opened by the District Superintendent, Rev. Ralph Tromble. The congregation was led in singing, "Blessed Assurance," by Rev. Daniel LeRoy. Prayer was offered by Rev. Denver Musser.

The District Superintendent introduced our General Superintendent, Dr. P. W. Thomas, as presiding officer of the Conference. He brought greetings, and called the Conference to order.

He read to us from Matthew 24, verse 14. "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." We may expect that evil will grow worse as the end of time approaches. The pressures of time are intense. Persecution and trouble must come.

I. The Gospel of the Kingdom Is to Be Preached.

- 1. Deliverance from Satan.
- 2. Reclamation in Christ.
- 3. Everlasting life.

The message of the Kingdom is what the world needs; it is what the church needs.

Christ had faith in His message.

Christ had faith in His program.

Christ had faith in His people.

The Gospel shall be preached.

He then voiced the burden of our General Superintendents for a revival in our churches, and concern about the shortage of competent workers. He concluded his remarks with a spirited prayer for revival.

The roll call was made by the District Secretary, E. R. Mitchell.

The Conference Bar was cleared.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the fifty-fifth annual District Conference of the Kentucky District; to our General Superintendent, Dr. W. P. Thomas; our Council; all ministerial and lay delegates: Greetings in the name of our Risen Saviour.

It is with a feeling of gratitude to God for His many mercies that we are gathered on these sacred grounds for another conference. We come realizing that these are days of testing for all, but we march on following Him who never fails. Jesus said, "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." God has planned much for His people. May He never be disappointed in any of us.

I wish to thank each of you for all the expressions of concern that have been given to me in regard to the death of my brother. I owe special thanks to my assistant, Rev. P. O. Carpenter, and the members of the council for their consideration, and to each and all of you for your prayers for me during this time. How I appreciate all the people of the Lord, and how encouraging it is to feel that they are praying for you.

We are not satisfied with the accomplishments of the past, but we do thank God for all He has helped us to do. I wish we could come up to conference and report that we had a gain in all departments, with a good gain in membership, and all the budgets paid in full. We have worked for this, and continually urge others to have this as their goal. In some ways this has been reached and in others we have come short. We praise God for every church that has made progress and are able to report their budgets paid. We praise Him for every soul that has been saved or helped, but we must not stop here; there are others to be saved. The days of harvest are passing and we must be about our Master's business.

One of the great dangers we have to face is that we become so burdened over our own problems that we do not see the needs of others. Jesus loved men enough to take time while He was dying to save a man. It has been our desire that we might go into new towns with the gospel. We do have some plans for a new church. We must reach new people. It is not enough to just go on. How we rejoice over each one that turns to the Lord. God has done a great work among our youth. Thank God for those who have had this leadership. Let us do all we can to help establish them in the things of God. We must not let this slip. We need each other; the youth and the adult are both an important part of our church. Let us not separate them but keep them both working together.

The thing to encourage us is that we can win, if every one will do his part. We rise or fall together. My failures hinder you, and your victories help me. We should strive to help each other. I have appreciated my Council and my pastors that have encouraged me and stood by me in hard places. I could not carry on without their help. May God bless them every one. I have tried to be faithful to them and work for their interest. It helps me to help some one else. I am blessed when they are blessed. We are workers together.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT, 1964 CAMP

General Superintendent Thomas, District Superintendent Tromble, Members of the Conference and Friends:

Greetings in the name that is above every name, Jesus Christ our Lord!

Another year has passed, and as I think of the brevity of life and the importance of time, I ask myself this question: Have I done my best this past year for my God, my church, and my fellow man? A solemn question indeed.

I have attended all regular Council meetings, and most of the special ones. It was a real treat to attend part of the Senior Youth camp. I enjoyed the rich ministry of Rev. Adcock. I appreciate what our Bro. Richardson and his staff of fine workers are endeavoring to do for Kentucky youth. I have traveled approximately 660 miles in the interest of district work. Besides Council meetings, I made one trip to Greenup for a business meeting. I have enjoyed the best of fellowship with my superintendent and members of the council. There have been problems but also blessings. Pray for your district council.

Respectfully,

P. O. Carpenter

Editor's Note: The District Superintendent and Council express thanks to Rev. Carpenter for his carrying of a double load in assuming the leadership during the early days of Camp, while our Superintendent was absent, in addition to being Camp evangelist and preaching in each night service.

REPORT OF

SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY

To the 1964 Annual Conference of the Kentucky District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church:

Another year has become history and it is time to evaluate to a small degree the labors that have gone forth. It has been said that statistics are cold facts and do not give a true picture. This is true, especially when one is dealing with numbers as they represent souls. We fully understand that Heaven alone will reveal the true evaluations. However, as long as we are dealing with facts and figures, and for want of a better way to give the report of a year's labors, we shall again give you the figures as they have come to our office.

We should remind you again that the report of the Promotional Secretary is only as accurate as the reports that you have sent in for the past year. If just one church missed one month in reporting our report would be incomplete. You will notice from the chart that has been prepared that more than one church missed more than one report. Therefore, this report can only give to us the degree of accuracy that you have made possible. However, there has been an increase in our reporting this year over previous years. Nineteen churches reported 12 times, twelve reported 11 times, three reported over 10 times, and thirteen reported over 5 times. This is an increase over last year, and for that you are to be commended, but it is far from what it should be.

I wish that it were possible to report to you this year that we have had a good gain, but I cannot. In fact, I must report to you that according to the figures received, we show a slight loss of 17. It is possible that the Statistician's report, which will be the official report, will show a gain.

Not only has there been an increase in the monthly reporting this year, but there has also been an increase in the reporting for the Standard of Excellence and the Decade of Progress. For this we are very happy, and yet our elation must be tempered by the fact that it is far below what it should be. For these two phases of our work, we have nine churches reporting. I am happy to report to you that the winner of the Decade of Progress Ship for this Conference year is the Maysville Church with 16,825 points.

The highest numerical gain and percentage gain for the year will go to the Cloverport Church with a numerical gain of 40 and a percentage gain of 76%. Other churches showing gains over 50% are the Cynthiana and Greenup churches. Those with over 25% gains are the churches at Carrollton, Todd's Road, Rush, and Willard. Those with gains of 15% or more are Garvin Hill, Hopeful Heights, Louisville I, Salem Ridge, and Shepherdsville. Those with 10% gain are Falmouth, Frankfort, and Pleasureville. With a 5% gain or more are the churches at Aspen Grove, Carlisle, Covington, Maysville, Pikeville, Winchester, and Augusta.

The pastors and their Sunday School officers are to be commended for their splendid cooperation in the Rally Day offering last fall. While we missed the point of perfection by two churches failing to report, we did have a total of $506.67 contributed by the 47 churches. Last fall at the meeting of the Sunday School Board, a plan was laid out for a Kentucky Conference Sunday School Annual Award to be given as an incentive toward cooperation in the District Sunday School program. There was a 5 point system set up as follows:

1.	For making monthly S. S. reports, 10 points each month.	120
2.	For attending Ministerial Convention S. S. Institute (Either Pastor or S. S. Supt.)	200
3.	For participating in the Decade of Progress	200
4.	For conducting an organized Lay visitation program	500
5.	For making quarterly and annual reports to the District Superintendent	200
	Possible to receive

The following churches are to be awarded this Conference award: Elizabethtown. Louisville I, Maysville, and Cloverport.

It is the sincere desire that upon seeing this beautiful award banner that next year a large number of the churches will cooperate and win.

This completes our statistical report of the year's work. The work of the Promotional Secretary is more than that of gathering figures and making monthly reports. The name clearly signifies that the primary function shall be that of promotion of the work of Christ through the Sunday School arm of the church. In the past year, we have tried in a small measure to carry out this function. Last Fall it was my privilege to make a tour of the District with the Youth President. Most of these meetings were held as dinner meetings, combining fellowship and business. They were well received in most of the zones, and we felt a step forward was made in bringing the work of the Sunday School directly to the pastors and the Sunday School teachers and officers. This was the first Sunday School tour of the District to be made since 1955. The Sunday School Board also prepared a fine program for the Sunday School institute at the Ministerial Convention which was well received and attended.

A chart has been prepared covering the past ten years that a permanent record of each month's Sunday School attendance has been kept. It gives much cause for deep reflection and study. While we have seen a high of 3,476 reached during this time, we have actually had a net loss of 355. We have endeavored to reach for a reason for this. I offer the following observations. In the first place we have not had an operating Sunday School organization or program. In the second place, we have had no budget with which to operate or promote. This has left every pastor to promote the General program or his own local program without any coordination or promotion from the District level.

In an effort to correct this, the following suggestions are made to this conference, some of which will be introduced through the proper committee:

1. The Sunday School department shall be included in the District Budget and shall be allotted 2% of regular District Budget offerings. This shall be supplemented by the two Sunday School offerings of the Camp and by the provisions already made for one fourth of the Zone meeting offerings.

2. The Promotional Secretary shall make a tour of the District in the fall months, presenting the plans and program of the District Sunday School Board and those of the General Sunday School Department. The expenses of said trip shall be met with offerings from the various meetings, if practical, and through the department budget.

3. It is further suggested that a time shall be given during camp meeting, when detailed study can be given for teachers and workers for the betterment of our local Sunday Schools. This is not to be at the time of any of the main services.

4. The Tuesday morning service of the District Ministerial Convention shall be under the direction of the Sunday School Department.

These suggestions are given with no sense of reflection on or criticism of the past leaders. It is only an honest effort to plan for the future with an eye to the past for the lessons it might teach us.

I take this opportunity to thank each of you for your cooperation in the past and to challenge you for the year ahead to make Kentucky Sunday Schools grow for God and His Kingdom.

Yours for better Sunday Schools,

E. R. Mitchell

DISTRICT MISSIONARY PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the fifty-fifth annual Conference of our District, we submit the following report:

Two Societies have been organized this year in the Maysville and Trace churches. Two other places are ready to organize in the very near future. The financial report of the Societies will be given by our District Statistician.

We have kept up monthly contact along Missionary lines through the Kentucky Pilgrim.

Our Missionary Committee has had two brief meetings together, where we set the following goals for this year:

1. That we be faithful each month to the projects placed before us by the Department of World Missions.

2. That we have Workshop Meetings in our District this year.

The meeting with the Society Presidents at the camp was very helpful. Owensboro, Elizabethtown, Morgantown, and Soldier furnished the displays for the Camp.

I have conducted several missionary services in both Adult and Junior Youth meetings.

In view of the great need of the Gospel message and the shortness of time to labor, our efforts may seem small, but He has said, "Be not weary in well doing." There will come a time of reaping. May we re-double our efforts and thrust in the sickle, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

Jenny V. Vincent District Missionary President

REPORT OF THE LADIES' CAMP AUXILIARY

Third Annual Report of the Ladies' Camp Auxiliary to the District Conference:

The Camp Auxiliary planned this year for the purchase of an awning for the front double doors of the new dining room. Also still needed were twelve pairs of drapes and some mattresses for the old dormitory.

I sent out forty-five letters to the churches, stating our project plans, and had a response from seven churches. Five churches sent in cash offerings, amounting to $27.13. With the balance from last year of $38.67 the total receipts amounted to $65.80. With only a small expense of $2.13 for drapery hardware, we have a balance of cash on hand of $63.67. This is a good amount toward the purchase of the awning.

Besides our stated projects this year. we had some substantial gifts which I will report through the Auxiliary. The Hopeful Heights church furnished ten pairs of drapes for the windows of the new dining room, also the draw rods and hooks for hanging them. They also gave twenty-two vases of flowers for the dining room tables. One of the Sunday School classes from the Ashland Fairview church gave a new electric coffee-maker, valued at $33.00, for the dining room. Thank you for your help.

Mrs. Lula Ackley, President

MEMOIRS

It is with feelings mingled with joy and sorrow, that we spread on our minutes these memorials of our departed; sorrow that they are absent from our midst, but rejoicing that they have fought the good fight, kept the faith, and that they now rest from their labors in the City of God!

Houston, pastor, district superintendent, and General Board member, was born at Lenoxburg, Bracken County, Kentucky, January 8, 1895, and passed away at Elizabethtown, Kentucky, June 21, 1964. Rev. Mrs. Rachel Clifton McCain was born March 4, 1907, and departed this life January 9, 1964.

For several years, she served as a licensed deaconess, then was granted ministerial license; and with her husband, Rev. C. B. McCain, pastored several churches in the Kentucky district. They were pastoring the Newport church at the time of her death.

Her love for God and souls was evidenced by her untiring labors for others. The faith that sustained her through many of life's hardships was firm until the end and her testimony to her family confirmed this, just before her homegoing.

She was laid to rest in the Evergreen Cemetery, Southgate, Kentucky, to await the rapture, when Christ shall come to gather His children home.

Mrs. Hildred Ramsey was born March 23, 1912, and went to Heaven January 9, 1964.

She was a faithful member of the Falmouth Pilgrim Holiness Church. She served her church as Secretary for twenty-five years, and also taught. Words can hardly express how much she meant to her local church.

Mrs. Senia C. Porter, age 79, departed this life June 1, 1964. She was converted at an early age, and was a member of the Garvin Hill Pilgrim Holiness Church. Her life was dedicated and she served her church faithfully, always with a glowing testimony for Christ. Her works do follow her, for she not only mothered her own eleven but was also a Mother to those in the community where she lived.

J. M. Horton, for many years a faithful member of the Soldier Pilgrim Holiness Church, was called to his reward in March 1964 at the close of a long and useful life.

His experience with the Lord was outstanding, and God divinely led him to our Soldier church. He walked many miles in order to attend regularly, was faithful in supporting with his tithe, to the very end.

He left to his family, church, and community, the heritage of a godly life, which reminds us of the scripture, "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace!"

DISTRICT YOUTH CONFERENCE MINUTES

The District Youth Conference convened in the tabernacle Saturday, August 1, 1964, at 9:30 o'clock A. M. with the Rev. O. D. Emery, General Secretary of Sunday Schools and Youth, presiding.

Rev. Lon Helms led in singing, "Sunshine in the Soul." Rev. Ralph Tromble led in prayer.

Rev. Emery's message to the Conference was based on the second chapter of Acts. He emphasized the importance of full time Christian service. The burden and theme of his message was: "We need our youth in the service of the church. Our young people are not entering Christian service like they one time did. We are losing seven out of eight of our Sunday School youth before they graduate from high school. We need to work on the local church level to keep them. We get too few into our church colleges. Few are being called to the Christian ministry. We need to pray for laborers. Let's recruit some of our young people. Create the atmosphere that they may be called."

The conference bar was formed.

The roll call was taken by the entire conference signing their names, churches, and addresses.

A motion was made and carried that James Southerland, Orlow Webb, and Sandra McNurlin, who are students in our Bible Schools and members of this district, be admitted to the conference bar.

The District Youth President's report was read by W. H. Richardson, and accepted with a standing vote of appreciation.

The auditing committee report was read and accepted.

The Treasurer's report was read by Thelma Willoughby, and accepted.

Rev. Emery suggested that each zone chairman send a report if he could not be present at the Youth Conference. Each zone chairman reported his activities of the past year. A motion was made and carried that we receive these reports.

Each Youth President who was present at the Conference reported of his activities in the local church. A motion was made and carried that these reports be accepted. Rev. Emery emphasized the use of "Teen Topics" for youth services.

Rev. Emery explained the Christian Youth Crusaders (CYC). He awarded the two Owensboro youth, Mary and John Alsup, for their achievements in the CYC. They received the John Wesley and Seth Reese awards. Don Mavis from Owensboro reported of their activities in CYC.

The chairman of the Resolutions Committee, Rev. Lon Helms, reported.

Resolution #1.	Adopted.
Resolution #2.	Adopted.

DSTRICT YOUTH PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Chairman, it is with a feeling of gratitude to God that I present this report. Once again we are privileged to assemble for another youth conference to hear reports of the activities of the past year and to seek guidance for the new year we are now entering.

In the office of District Youth President, I have traveled over 5,000 miles in the interest of the department. I attended the Sunday School and Youth Leaders' Conference at Denver, Colorado in August, for a time of fellowship with our General Youth Officers and other district presidents, where plans were made for the Youth Department of our church. I toured the district with Rev. E. R. Mitchell, our Sunday School Promotional Secretary, in the interest of Youth. I presided over one Youth Council meeting in October, one Youth Camp Planning Committee in November, and one Senior Banquet Planning Committee in February. I was chairman of two Senior Banquets, and Director of two Youth Camps.

This has been a wonderful year in attendance for our zone rallies. We have a total attendance for all zone rallies of 3,861. This means a gain of 136 over last year. Our goal was 4,000, so this means we came 139 short of our goal. The following reveals the attendance in each zone: Elizabethtown, 952; Covington, 854; Western, 728; Ashland, 462; Lexington, 366; Louisville, 109; Mountain, 59; and Olive Hill, 331.

Our Youth Camp had grown until our present facilities were unable to accommodate our camp increase. The Youth Council met in October and voted to divide into Junior and Senior Camps, the Junior Camp, ages 9-12, and Senior Camp, ages 13-21. The Junior Camp was blessed with 83 campers and the Senior Camp with 150. Our teachers, speakers, all counselors, and other workers labored very hard to make these camps a great success.

For the first time Kentucky Youth launched a District-wide Senior Banquet. The results went beyond our expectations. The department honored 25 Seniors. A total of 205 met on the camp grounds in our new dining room to honor these Seniors. Rev. E. L. Wilson challenged our Seniors as they face the future. A smaller Banquet was held in the Western area with Rev. A. L. Sypolt as speaker. Thirty-six were in attendance at this banquet.

As we hear this report, we need to remind ourselves that the youth department is going forward. To continue this progress, we must make goals to work for to accomplish the challenge of our day.

Goals for next year:

- 1. To tour the District in the fall to promote the Youth program.
- 2. To have one or more Senior Banquets.
- 3. To launch a District-wide "Pilgrim Youth News" contest.
- 4. To have Junior and Senior Youth Camps.
- 5. To charter twenty new Youth Societies.
- 6. To have an organized Youth program at Camp meeting.
- 7. To have Kentucky represented at the National Youth Convention.
- 8. To pray that our Youth will answer the call of God into the service of the Lord.

I would like to pause to express my appreciation. There have been many that have assisted me in the department. I appreciate my leader, Rev. Ralph Tromble, for his counsel and help in the many problems that have faced us in the past year. To my Vice President, Rev. Lon Helms, for the many hours he has given in preparation for the camps; to the youth camp planning committee and senior banquet committee, and our speakers, teachers, supervisors, counselors, and all assistants, that made the youth activities possible, I express appreciation.

We are aware of new and perplexing problems in our work, but God, who has led us in the battle to date, will lead on. We surely give God all the glory for what has been accomplished, and we look forward with faith and hope that He will give wisdom and guidance in the course of an expanding program for the future of Kentucky Pilgrim Youth. I have enjoyed my work and am happy for the privilege of sharing in the great work of Kingdom building.

For Kentucky Youth,

W. H. Richardson
