TO THE FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE MICHIGAN DISTRICT OF THE PILGRIM HOLINESS CHURCH:

Greetings in the Name of Him who has called us from the dark domain of sin to wonderful liberty and peace in the Holy Spirit.

In gratitude to God for His blessings and favors bestowed upon us as a district, we may well join with Paul saying, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ; according as He has chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, and we should be to the praise of His glory who first trusted in Christ."

By the mercies and favors of God we have come through another year to this annual conference, during which time our ministers and laymen have gone through many distressing conditions and perplexing problems. Sorrow, caused by death, has entered a number of our Pilgrim homes and many sad partings, because of our young men leaving for service of our country, have left grief with the parents; but in all cases the never failing arm of God has supported His own. "His eye is upon the righteous and His ear is open to their cries." Thank God for the unfaltering hand which has guided us in the past and which will guide us in the unpredictable future. He will dispell all clouds and distressing fears if we but trust Him.

In this world of confusion and aggressiveness of evil we must hold dear the faith and the Bible standards of Christian living, which are established in our hearts by the Holy Spirit. Never was there a time when we should seek the leadership of the Holy Spirit more than now. In this time of distress and confusion the church needs One who can see into the future and guide her in paths of righteousness; no one needs fear the ability of the blessed Holy Spirit to do this. The church of other years has passed through the testings and, no doubt, there are fierce testings for her in the future, but with the Holy Spirit as her leader, and the promise of the Savior that "the gates of hell shall not prevail against her", our faith should reach out in an even greater inclusiveness while we work for Him in the ripened harvest field which is ready for the reapers.

This year brought many difficult problems due to the national emergency. The induction of nearly all able-bodied young men into the armed forces, and also the moving of so many families to defense centers, has drawn heavily on our constituency in several sections. The passing of our highly esteemed sister and friend, Rev. Mrs. J. E. Strong, of Battle Creek, is a distinct loss to the church. From this Godly character radiated a holy influence which was felt throughout the Holiness movement. Rev. J. W. Smith of Lansing, who lived close to the Lord passed to his reward during the year. To hear him weep and pray over the church and needy souls reminded one of the patriarchs of old. Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Philo, who are very much appreciated in the district, suffered the loss of a son, Daniel, who was known as Danny and was loved by all. Danny will be missed on the campus when school opens this fall. God, who never errs in judgment, called them from life's stormy sea to the glorious calm of eternal life, where they shall shine as the stars of the morning. Thank God we shall meet again at that happy reunion on the fair banks of glad deliverance.

While our loss of these is keenly felt, God has enabled the church to march steadily on. Our ministers and laymen have shown great courage and faith while battling the unseen forces of evil constantly trying to undermine Christianity. There is evidence among our people of a deeper vision and a growing interest in God's work. This is not only true of the district but is also true of the general church interests. It is evident we stand ready to co-operate in all its work.

We cannot claim any great gain numerically, but spiritually our church has made splendid progress, many have enjoyed good revivals and times of out-pouring of the Spirit. The communion services have been especially owned and blessed of God, making one feel he was on holy ground.

In addition to the churches growing spiritually, many have taken advantage of the increase of the flow of revenue and have liquidated their property debts. It has been the privilege of your servant to assist in several mortgage-burning services this year. Besides the liquidating of debts, several churches have made necessary repairs and some have purchased new property. The work at Muskegon, under the supervision of Rev. D. P. Price, is much more encouraging now than it has been for years. They recently purchased a new parsonage on Washington avenue, and are making needed repairs which, when finished will make this property a credit to the church. The church at Pontiac, having had to rent a place of worship for years, now is enjoying a new church home. They are making commendable progress under the leadership of Rev. R. C. Hawkins. The congregation has increased, making it necessary to enlarge the new building. Rev. Orville Smith of St. Clair Shores has a growing work. They recently enjoyed a very good revival and now have plans on foot to enlarge their place of worship. The congregation at Ecorse, under the leadership of T. H. Myers, has purchased new pews and pulpit constructed from red elm which will add beauty to their newly decorated church. Rev. L. N. Nelsen, at the Lapeer Road church of Flint, is doing a good work of repairing, and is also enlarging the parsonage. Rev. L. R. Neff of Ann Arbor is repairing the church which will add to its value and convenience. Rev. E. C. Swanson at Ellsworth has improved his church by completing the basement and building an addition on the south end. Rev. C. E. Cliff, and his splendid people at Port Huron, have purchased a new parsonage on Lapeer avenue to take care of a long standing need. It can rightly be said of our ministers and laymen that they have an aggressive spirit, and what they have done this year by the help of the Lord is a testimony that they can do even better in the future.

OUR HOME MISSIONARY WORK. Owing to national conditions, church extension work has been more difficult this year; however, this has not retarded our work in this field as God is blessing our home missionaries. Rev. E. G. Ritenburgh, in the work at Marquette, felt for some time that it would be a benefit, as well as a blessing to our work to get on the air with a good spiritual program. By the contributions of several churches and individuals, he has been able to launch a fourteen-week broadcast. Rev. Paul Hollman at Munising is progressing nicely. By the co-operation of the people in that little northern city, the church has been able to buy a lot on a contract and is now working on plans to build a church. Rev. Hollman and wife by careful living, have gained the confidence of the business men of that city. Rev. Miss Ruth Alexander, at Cheboygan, is doing a good work. Under her able leadership, they have outgrown their first place of worship and have recently rented a larger place in a more suitable location. She has also won the confidence of the people.

Rev. P. H. Emlinger is doing a noble work at Bay City. While he has lived there less than one year, God has blessed his labors until we have an organized church; also we have purchased a building in which to worship. Rev. Nelson Miller of Dryden has labored faithfully and, with the splendid co-operation of his people, has been able to purchase a schoolhouse and has had it moved to the church lot. This work was launched three years ago with Rev. H. S. Bennett and Rev. Russell Mohl and wife holding the first meeting. They have been using the "George B. Kulp" portable tabernacle for a place of worship. They are now off the home missionary list, being self-supporting, and have been organized into a Pilgrim Holiness church. In addition to being self-supporting, they raised the money among their own people to buy the schoolhouse and pay for moving it to the church lot. Rev. Paul DeGrandchamp, who has been faithful to the church, launched a new work at Utica and now has a newly constructed church building. This new work is also organized and is a self-supporting Pilgrim Holiness church. Our Grace Street church at Lansing, under the leadership of Rev. A. H. Williams is now self-supporting. Through the vision of and interest in church extension work of the eastern zone, we have been able to launch a new work at Willow Run. The people of that zone gave the money to buy a lot at the corner of Jerome and Forest Streets. Rev. & Mrs. Herbert Diller are the workers there and are getting a splendid start in that rapidly growing section. Our laymen have shown a growing interest in church extension work and have given every evidence of being willing "to go a little farther" by giving liberally to this work. Several churches are supporting workers in this field, over and above the regular budget.

I am happy to tell you that it has been a pleasure this year to work with the pastors and laymen of the district. The greatest courtesy and kindest regard have been given to your servant. In all the problems of the district the ministers have shown a willingness to share in every burden in order to advance the work of the Lord. Having been royally entertained in the homes of the pastors and laymen, has made me feel indebted to them. What has been said of the ministry can rightly be said of Bible Holiness Seminary. President Mills and his staff have co-operated most beautifully in the work of the district. With almost endless labors falling upon the President, I have never found him too busy to co-operate.

IN MEMORIAM

REV. MRS. SADIE (KULP) STRONG was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, December 2, 1876. She went to Heaven from her home in Battle Creek, Michigan, Feb. 5, 1943 at the age of 66 years, 2 months and 3 days. She was united in marriage to Rev. J. E. Strong, January 2, 1914. He preceeded her to his heavenly home by nearly 12 years. Their earthly home was a haven of rest, and gave hospitality and kindness to all; especially to them who were of the "household of faith".

She was gloriously saved while young, and a few hours afterwards, was sanctified by the baptism with the Holy Ghost and called to preach at the same time. She went forth preaching God's Word without fear or favor, and many precious souls were led into the experiences of salvation and sanctification. Her faith was strong in the Lord and surmounted many difficulties. At one time when quite young while in a revival meeting with another young lady preacher, they were put under quarantine for smallpox. She claimed the promise in Psalms 91: 10 "There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling." The other girl did not claim the promise and was stricken with the disease. Sister Strong received word to go into another meeting. She walked out from under quarantine and went to the meeting in a Methodist church in Michigan. One night while preaching and telling what God had done for her, the whole choir walked off the platform to the Altar to be saved. Her faith brought results.

One of her expressions in testimony was "Glory be to God and Heaven's King." As a church we shall miss her Godly life. Financially, she was a great giver, both for home and foreign work and she gave as unto the Lord, not for show or name. We read this in Proverbs 31: 26: "She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness."

A general on the field, who spurned all compromise with sin;
Whose very soul within her burned—a fallen race to win;
For love and truth and holiness her choicest gifts she gave
Of tongue and pen, the world to bless and dying souls to save.

—Mrs Ella Ewers, Chairman, Memorial Committee.

Rev. John Wesley Smith was born June 20, 1849 in Ohio and went to Heaven October 12, 1942, at Lansing, Michigan at the age of 93 years, 3 months and 22 days. His funeral was held in the First Pilgrim Holiness Church in Lansing; of which he was a member for about 15 years.

For 45 years of his former life he was in active service in the Illinois and Oklahoma Conferences of the Methodist Church. The rest of his ministerial service was given to the Pilgrim Holiness Church. He lived a life of righteousness and purity and went home to Heaven in a halo of glory; the nearer he came to the end of his journey here, the more glorious his life was. When he was able to attend church he was a good listener, and would pray until God's presence was felt in the meeting. He had a burning love for the church of which he was a member. There he was sanctified, and he walked on the Highway of Holiness the rest of his life, having an abundant entrance into the Heavenly City.

"Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Matt. 5: 8.

Redeemed from earth and pain,
Ah! when shall we ascend.
And all in Jesus' presence reign
With our translated friend?

Mrs Ella Ewers, Chairman, Memorial Committee.
