Ed. Note—North Central as a District voted to unite with the “National Association of Evangelicals” in the District Conference of 1950. In April of 1951 our application for membership was unanimously received by the board of Administration at its semi-annual session.
DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the 15th annual conference of the North Central District now in session at Warrenton Missouri, Greetings! It is with grateful heart we submit this report, which covers some of our work throughout the past Conference year. Psalms 62:1 “Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from Him cometh my Salvation.” This has been a good year with substantial gains.

A fine Young People’s Convention was enjoyed, and well attended at Eddyville Iowa, with Rev. L. W. Sturk General Superintendent the special speaker. A Ministerial Convention in St. Louis in March, proved a great blessing to our district. The Workers were Rev. P. W. Thomas and Rev. R. A. Beltz. These men were each qualified to present the program of National Evangelism until our hearts were stirred in a great measure.

The new brick basement church in St. Louis has been completed, and Rev. Sturk was called to dedicate this property on December 10th 1950. We are grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation in St. Louis, God has given us a good year there. The Warrenton Pilgrims have purchased a nice church building from the Methodist, and this has been a great step forward. The church in Eddyville has reduced their indebtedness, and are going forward. The Kansas City Pilgrims have completely liquidated their indebtedness, and we were called there to assist in their mortgage burning service just before Easter. The church at Council Bluffs have purchased a nice six room modern parsonage, just four blocks from the church.

We have one new church organization at Waldron Missouri, Rev. M. L. Allen is the pastor. Rev. O. E. Livengood has a Sunday School and preaching point at Wabunsee, Iowa. We have opened new places at Weatherby Missouri, Rev. E. C. Ryburn pastor; At Grand River Iowa with Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Houck pastors. We especially appreciate these new pastors, who have put forth such an heroic effort, and manifested such a spirit of sacrifice to move out for God in these towns. Our pastors have all cooperated beautifully. Seventy five percent of our pastors have paid their budgets in FULL.

We attended the Superintendent’s Conference in Indianapolis last January. During the year we have conducted special series of meetings in Waldron Missouri, Council Bluffs Iowa, and Weatherby Missouri. Each church of the district has been visited at least two times. We have traveled over 11,000 miles, have had a number of seekers and have earnestly tried to boost each department of the church.

The messages of Rev. Jason Felter, and the Singing and music of the Salvadors has been greatly appreciated in this Camp Meeting. We are certainly delighted because of the interest shown yesterday in behalf of a Camp Ground for the district. I feel that God is answering prayer in a wonderful way for this great need. I am praying that as we go back in to the harvest field from this Conference, that we may realize the necessity of pushing the battle as never before.

Respectfully submitted,

W. O. Bottenberg.
REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE’S DISTRICT SECRETARY

To the fifteenth annual conference of North Central District, now in session in Warrenton, Missouri. Greetings in Jesus Name:

As we come to the close of this conference year, we want to thank God for the blessings he has given us. We can truly say this has been one of our best years, even though the problems have been many.

As we worked with the Young People, we were keenly conscious of our weakness and our utter dependence upon God.

We traveled about 3000 miles in the interest of the District this year in the youth work. About 1000 of this being to the regional Youth Convention held at Owosso, Michigan. We took with us young people from three of the churches to represent our District. We enjoyed the fellowship of Rev. Elliott, our National Youth leader, and also the young people of the several states represented. This trip, we feel, has been a great blessing to us this year.

Also, God gave us a very good convention for our own District. This was held at Eddyville, Iowa and the Reverend L. W. Sturk, our General Superintendent, was the evangelist. His spirit filled messages were a great inspiration to everyone present. On the last night the Church was filled to overflowing. Several children and young people received help at the altar during this convention.

We visited all but two of the Churches during the year and we felt the blessings of the Lord upon the work of each Church and Young People’s Society. We deeply feel that God has been with us this year and we find our young people at the front lines fighting the battle for God and righteousness.

We want to express our appreciation for the prayers and cooperation, not only throughout the year, but also during the Camp. May we ever strive to meet again, one and all, on “Yonder Blissful Shore.”

Yours in His service,
C. W. Bebermeyer

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

We, the auditing committee, have examined the District Treasurer’s books, and annual report, and find them easily comprehended, neat, and accurately kept.
